LYTTELTON HARBOUR

review creators

Lyttelton Harbour Review is a 100% voluntary community newsletter initiative developed after the February 2011 earthquake by local Professionals Real Estate Agent Lynnette Baird, and Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre Chairperson Wendy Everingham.

The objective of the Lyttelton Harbour Review is to help keep local residents informed with what is going on in the wider Lyttelton Harbour community. Of course the success of the Lyttelton Harbour Review could not be possible without the ongoing support and enthusiasm from the wider community. A big thank you goes out to everyone who sends information; is willing to be interviewed by a couple of amateurs; or lets us know what might be happening in the neighbourhood. The Lyttelton Harbour Review project would not be possible without you all.

If you have an event, topic or cause that you would like to share with the harbour community, then Lynnette or Wendy would love to hear from you:

Goodwill Shines Over Rapaki

Waitangi Day at its Best

Waitangi Day at Rapaki was truly a celebration of our bicultural and multicultural nation.

A very large crowd of locals and guests including MP's the Mayor and councillors gathered in the courtyard entrance of the Marae for the welcoming Powhiri celebrating Waitangi Day.

Tangata Whenua represented by Nuk Korako, and the guests by the Principal from Opawa Primary School. Councillor Andrew Turner spoke on behalf of the Council. That was a first for him and he made a great effort to convey some of his message in Te Reo.

For newcomers the ceremony is quite magical and educational and for guests who have already been on the Marae before it's a chance to strengthen ties and enjoy the special atmosphere.

The traditional Powhiri symbolized historical treaty ties reflecting the partnership between the Crown and Maori.

The Powhiri was followed by a Citizenship Ceremony reflecting the changing face of New Zealand. For new citizens this was a perfect way for them to understand the special relationship between the State and Maori and to know they were also part of a truly multicultural country.

This year at Rapaki it was truly another year of firsts. New Mayor Leanne Dalziel officiated at her first Citizenship Ceremony at the Marae. It was the first time the council had ever held a citizenship ceremony at Rapaki Marae and a first for Mayor Dalziel in officiating on Waitangi Day.

For all the new "New Zealanders" it was a very special welcome to our country. Twenty five people from eleven different nations were fortunate to take part in the ceremony and our wider community was privileged to witness it all.

Thank you to the people of Rapaki who made everyone feel welcome.

Special thanks to Ripeka Paraone and Nuk Korako who facilitated the day's activities.

Lyttelton Tunnel Tiles

Made in Temuka

Lyttelton people have been wondering why the once pristine tunnel tiles are looking poorly. Avonhead resident Ron Palmer took a look and what he saw concerned him.

Palmer declares a personal interest in the tiles. His father, Len, was foreman of Temuka firm NZ Insulators Ltd that manufactured them. Palmer's brother, Bill, was the company's tool and diemaker who engineered the dies that shaped them. NZ Insulators was a big company, and started the four-year manufacture of the tiles in 1960 with a press it had imported from England for the purpose.

The tiles were made of vitrified porcelain, which was judged best for cleanliness, lack of eye-glaring reflection and low maintenance. The process involved baking twice at intense heat and glazing to leave a glass-like finish on the tiles. The result was an almost impervious surface, allowing less than 0.5 per- cent of water absorption. This satisfied the demand for tiles suitable to line a tunnel nearly 2km -long and carrying more than 10,000 vehicles a day.

The standard of manufacture was exacting, Palmer says. Every tile was individually checked in a special metal frame. A force was applied to the centre of the tile and lights at each corner lit up to indicate if the tile was sufficiently level and even. The required 1.25 million tiles passed the test, were transported to Christchurch and fitted in the tunnel. However, even more tiles were rejected. Palmer says workers labelled the pile of rejected tiles "Mt Egmont".

“1,250,000 tiles covering seven acres of wall about 10% of all tunnel costs”

Palmer says the family telephone would ring at all hours as night staff found problems with the plant. His father would drive back to work and supervise repairs.

Sometimes, as the heat in the oil-fired kiln died down, workers had to crawl inside to realign the "saggers" and restack the trolleys.

The figures (in imperial measurements of the day) indicate the size of the project: 1,250,000 tiles, each 6 inches-square, covered 7-acres of wall along 1.2 miles on each side of the tunnel. The cost, including yellow tiles imported from Britain for the tunnel roof, was [PndStlg]287,000; about 10 per-cent of the total cost of the tunnel.

Palmer says his father was proud of the Temuka company's success in winning the contract and its performance in completing it. However, it had its challenges and he was "glad to see the project reaching its conclusion".

"He appreciated receiving an invitation to the opening of the tunnel on January 16, 1964, and was keen to attend.

"His sudden death at 57 snatched that away from him. He never saw the completed Lyttelton-Christchurch road tunnel, Palmer says. He adds, with regret, that the imported press and the metal dies Bill engineered were scrapped after completion of the project.

When Bill visited his younger brother at Avonhead over the years, they would take a drive to Lyttelton and admire the gleaming white tiles in the tunnel. When they heard of the damage recently, Bill asked him to take another look.

"The tiles looked pretty grotty," Palmer says. Some cracking was visible and black smears indicated possible water seepage. He thinks this might have been caused by earthquakes. He has heard it said that hydrochloric acid being used for cleaning was the culprit but Bill assures him the tiles are resistant to acid.

The tiles may not look their best for the tunnel's 50th birthday on February 27 but they were a sparkling tribute to a small South Canterbury town's industry when Governor-General Sir Bernard Fergusson performed the official opening.

Cruise Ship in Port

First for the Season: Chrystal Symphony

Crystal Symphony is one of the most luxurious and spacious cruise ships at sea. It is the first cruise ship for the season in Lyttelton.

For those of you interested in ship statistics the Crystal Symphony was built in 1992 at Kvaerner Masa-Yards in Turku, Finland. She was ordered in December 1992 and entered service in May 1995. It is a 51,000 ton vessel and it can accommodate 940 passengers and 545 crew. It's currently on a voyage from Sydney around to Auckland.

The Crystal Symphony was refitted a second time in 2006. This process, which cost USD 23 Million, was the largest refit ever for Crystal Cruises. During this refit, Crystal employed over 750 external workers to join the existing 545 crew to ensure a timely completion. The refit was done in BAE Systems Norfolk Ship Repair in Norfolk, Virginia.

In 2009 Crystal Symphony underwent a third refit costing US$25 million. The refit was completed at Boston Ship Repair's South Boston Dry dock. Then in June 2012, the ship completed a two-week "extreme makeover" done by 1,100 workers (including the crew) at the Blohn and Voss docks in Germany.

Crystal cruise ships are wholly owned by Nippon Yusen Kaisha (NYK), one of the largest shipping companies in the world. Headquartered in Tokyo, the firm operates over 800 ships, has offices around the globe and is renowned for its fast, reliable and economical service to people around the world.

Today, Crystal Cruises operates the two top-rated luxury ships in the world: the 922 guest Crystal Symphony (launched in 1995) and the 1,070 guest Crystal Serenity (launched in 2003). Crystal Harmony was retired in 2005.

Lyttelton will host another four ships for this visitor season:

February 22 Live Music | Lyttelton Coffee Company 12.51pm

On February 22 2011, Barry Saunders [singer and writer for the Warratahs] and Al Park, were just about to sit down for lunch, when the earthquake struck.

They both dived under the table and lived that moment of terror that was experienced by everyone in Christchurch that day. A long friendship between the two became more than that and, like many people, their friendship became something more due to that shared experience.

Now that time has passed they have decided that it would be good to do something to commemorate that day so they have gathered up a bunch of musicians, poets and writers to put on a show at the Lyttelton Coffee Company starting at 12.51 on Saturday 22nd February and finishing at 3pm.

The artists appearing are: Barry Saunders, Al Park, Aaron Tokona, Adam McGrath, Ben Brown, Anne Brower, Vicki Anderson, Hannah Harding and Jess Shanks.

Project Lyttelton, Angus Donadson printers, and Phantom Billstickers have been generous in their support.

Al Park says "It is envisaged that this will become an annual event with the hope that each year someone new will put the event on and in doing so will make it their commemoration".

EQC Land Claims | Settlement for Retaining Walls

Many residents around Lyttelton will have received advice and settlement statements from EQC with regard to earthquake damage for retaining walls.

Here are some essential 'need to know' points when reviewing your EQC land claim package:

EQC covers retaining walls that are necessary for the support or protection of the house or any main access way if they are within sixty metres of the house.

EQC does not cover retaining walls that serve a landscaping function.

Land damage claims will be settled by EQC via a cash payment to the homeowner, or mortgagee. As a general rule, EQC will not repair or replace any privately owned retaining wall.

For retaining wall claims, the amount paid by EQC will be calculated on the basis of either the cost of repair, or the "indemnity value" - depending on the damage, age and condition of the retaining wall.

Where insured retaining walls are damaged, the maximum amount of the insurance is calculated on the basis of the "indemnity value" of the property. This term is not defined in the EQC Act, but has a particular and well understood meaning in the valuation profession.

Indemnity value is typically defined as follows:

The cost necessary to replace, repair or rebuild to a condition and extent substantially equal to, but not better or more extensive than the walls condition or size at the time that the damage occurred.

Indemnity value does not take into account the cost of restoring the retaining wall to a better or more extensive condition than the property damaged, in order to meet current regulatory standards for issuing building consents.

Under the Building Act any retaining wall exceeding 1.5m in height, or any retaining used to support a building or structure will require engineering and building consent.

The indemnity value payment for any retaining wall will be lower, and in many cases significantly lower, than replacement value.

If you do not agree with the settlement provided by EQC, you can ask EQC to reconsider. Reconsideration may result in EQC upholding or overturning their original decision, or issuing a new decision for a different reason, not previously considered.

Time is of the essence. You must send your dispute request with supporting information, within three months of the date of your settlement letter, to Land Challenges, PO Box 311 Wellington 6140 or alternatively you can scan and email to info@eqc.govt.nz.

When disputing the claim settlement, EQC ask for "supporting information" to endorse your view. You will need to engage the services of an independent valuer who will provide you with a report showing the calculations used.

FREE ADVICE:

If you would like to chat about your EQC Land Claim to someone with relative experience and knowledge in this area, to help you understand the process and information being provided, please feel free to contact Lynnette Baird on direct dial 03 281 7517.

Upon the Water

Lyttel Gallery Exhibition | February 2014

Alan McClean's exhibition "Upon the Water" opened at the Lyttel Gallery on February 3rd.

Alan and his friends celebrated the event with a small opening party. The exhibition will run until the end of February. Alan was so thrilled to find a space to exhibit in.

The Lyttel Gallery at the Information Centre is proving very popular for small intimate exhibitions. If you would like to exhibit please contact curator Reuben Romany 03 328 9093.

Secret Lives of Sheepdogs

By Annelise Hall

Past Lyttelton resident, Annelise Hall proudly launched her first book "Secret Lives of Sheepdogs: The Mangakuri Sketches" at the Christchurch South Library last week. The book, an illustrated collection of poetry, has been inspired by her stay at Mangakuri farm in the Wairarapa where she lived amongst a team of farm dogs. The poems capture all the doggie characters and life on the farm. She kindly allowed us to reproduce one of her poems. And the book is available for sale at the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre:

The Mangakuri Mob

Woof, woof,woof!
Wag, wag, wag!
We're the Mangakuri Mob.

We woof and wag,
and muster sheep -
That's our favourite job.

We chase cows
out of our river,
to keep the water clean.

We woof and wag,
eat yummy bones,
and live the doggy dream.

FROM THE APPOINTED BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE LYTTELTON MERGED SCHOOL

5 FEBRUARY 2014

Tēna koutou to you all

I am very excited to be back for this term which promises to be very busy. You may know I have been released from my principal's role at Lyttelton West so I can focus on our new school. I have to say that Term 4 was hectic as I worked with the Appointed Board to complete the staffing analysis and staff appointments, the organisation of the school from May this year, and the master plan for the school. Margaret Coleman will act as principal of Lyttelton West and Liza Rossie will act as principal at Lyttelton Main as Sue Walls has taken up an appointment as acting principal at Darfield School. We wish Sue well in her new venture.

This term I will be based at the St Joseph's site and I am looking forward to getting to know all the children and their families. My door is always open, and while finding the office is not straight forward, I hope parents and children will pop in to say 'hello'. I will keep my email address principal@lytteltonwest.school.nz until our new school is set up. I am happy to be contacted with questions, queries or suggestions.

On February 13 we are welcoming all parents and whanau to a forum to discuss what is happening as we work towards 5 May. It will be a 'fish and chip' evening where we come together, share food and talk. It will be held at the Town Site (Winchester Street) to give you an opportunity to have a look around. Please note this in your diary.

I look forward to working with you all.

School Design

The architects have begun work on the design of the four learning commons and the admin block. We have held a workshop with staff to gather their ideas and thoughts about the internal arrangements. We will also organise visits for staff to visit other schools where appropriate, and meetings have been organised with people who have expertise in specific areas. It is exciting Diana is to be included in a tour of new schools in Melbourne at the end of February. The detailed design is scheduled for completion in two months so we have a short time to explore options and make decisions.

Charter, Vision and Values

The Appointed Board has begun to work on the Vision and Values for the new school that will form a significant part of the Charter. Again, there is some urgency as the Charter will be due to the MOE during Term 2. The workshop with staff also included some thinking about the vision and values that will guide our school. We will be looking for opportunities for community involvement and input into these.

Policies

Policies provide the framework for how our school works. During Term 1 we will be looking at our policies and procedures to ensure they meet the needs of a school operating over two sites.

A Name for our School

Thank you to all of you who took part in the survey last year. We have taken the five most preferred names and prepared a very quick survey on SurveyMonkey that will close on Monday 10 February at noon. The Appointed Board is meeting after the forum on 13 February to finalise the choice. The proposed name is then forwarded to the MOE for ratification. The link to the survey is:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/LFL8CLH>

Staffing

The position of Vice Principal Curriculum and Assessment is currently being advertised. The position will close on 21 February and we hope to have made an appointment by mid-March. Apart from that, all our teachers have been back getting their classrooms ready for the beginning of the year.

Portacomms

The portacomms are in place on the St Joseph's, or Town site. One will be occupied by the Year 8 class and the other three are being prepared for the younger children to move into at the end of the term.

Two portacomms will be placed on the grassy flat at West, or the Hill site at the beginning of Term 2. We are pleased that this will allow our school to have the use of the Hill site hall over the period we are on two sites.

School Programmes

The leadership group of both schools have been, and will continue to work together in a variety of ways. We are planning opportunities that will allow all the children and staff to come together for learning and activities during the term. We are also looking at planning for such activities as swimming, sports activities, drama groups, choir, kapa haka and camps over the course of the year.

Appointed Board

This dedicated group of people have worked extremely hard over the last few months under tight timeframes and a very heavy workload. Their commitment for our children and to the new school is much appreciated.

Community Board Snippets

Brief Overview of January Minutes of Meeting

Fletcher EQR Hub

Mr Reid Stiven, Earthquake Commission Home Repair Programme Manager, Ms Nellie Tuck, EQC Communications Department and Mr Craig Stevens, Fletcher Earthquake Recovery Hub Operations Manager updated the Board on earthquake recovery operations in Lyttelton.

The Lyttelton hub on Winchester Street has now closed and all staff are still working together at Beckenham where extra resources are available to service our area. The Board were advised that any queries from our area can be phoned through to an EQC Community Contact Team member at the 0800 DAMAGE number. It is hoped that the completion target date of the end of 2014 will still be met and relevant figures of home repairs were provided as follows:

Banks Peninsula: 1,600 completed 500 to go.
Lyttelton: 327 completed 120 under way 257 to go.

The Board expressed concern that cash land settlement payments being received by property owners with damaged retaining walls are not covering the full cost involved and therefore owners are unable to proceed with repairs to their walls. EQC are presently engaging with the Council regarding the unique problem of ownership of the retaining walls in Lyttelton.

Norman Kirk Pool and Lyttelton Recreation Centre Update

David Lees (Project Manager), Stuart Graham (RSU Places and Spaces Manager) and Nigel Cox (Western Area Manager) updated the Board on progress for the reinstatement of the Norman Kirk Memorial Pool and Lyttelton Recreation Centre later in 2014/15.

It was noted that access from Oxford Street to the Project Lyttelton buildings behind the pool will be seriously restricted for several months while repairs are carried out and arrangements will need to be made for a transitional facility to be available. Repairs to the retaining wall surrounding the pool will also affect the development of the proposed upgraded skate park being funded by the Southport earthquake donation.

The Board agreed to appoint Christine Wilson as the Community Board representative to the Project Control Group for the Norman Kirk Memorial Pool and Ann Jolliffe as the Community Board representative to the Project Control Group for the Lyttelton Recreation Centre.

The Board expressed their thanks to staff for the successful consultation programme carried out in the Lyttelton community last year. The Board also wished to express their condolences for the loss of valued staff member Ian Whitehead.

Lyttelton Historical Museum Society

Ms Kerry McCarthy, President of the Lyttelton Historical Museum Society, Mr Peter Rough, Committee member and Mr Ray Sleeman, Consultant Christchurch and Canterbury Tourism Group updated the Board on the Society's recent activities and tabled their strategic plan.

The Board were advised that the Lyttelton Museum collection is still in safe storage at Wigram Museum but this arrangement will finish at the end of 2015. The collection comprises 2,000 objects and fortunately only a few have suffered damage, the repairs for which will be covered by insurance.

The Board welcomes the opportunity to have input towards the proposed projects and stages of the Lyttelton Museum but requested that they need to have a steer from the Society regarding the option of possibly becoming part of the long established and well resourced Council Museums' structure in the future.

Animal Control at Corsair Bay

The Board were advised that Animal Control have visited Corsair Bay and will be relocating bylaw signs to make it clear where animals are restricted to be.

Lyttelton Tunnel Celebrations

The Board heard that the 50th birthday celebrations for the Lyttelton Tunnel would now be postponed until May or June 2014 and be combined with the official opening of the new Tunnel Administration Building currently under construction.

Freedom Camping Issues

The Board heard that some Corsair Bay residents are concerned at the level of music noise and toilet waste from freedom campers who do not have onboard toilet facilities in their vehicles.

Farmers Market Vacancy

Project Lyttelton are looking for a person to work at the Farmers Market each fortnight. Eight hours a week, job sharing with the other market coordinator.. Applications close Thursday February 13th. Job description attached. For more information call Anne Jaiswal 328 9243.

The GIFT

Reimagining our Collective Dream

THE GIFT: Reimagining our Collective Dream is an un-conference which seeks to cultivate a deeper conversation in search of new solutions to our current economic, environmental and social challenges.

We believe the key to unlocking the solutions is reimagining a new story to live by.

The gathering includes two days of reflection, dialogue, dreaming and play, exploring new economic and social paradigms inspired by the multiple benefits of the gift culture model.

What's exciting is that the whole weekend will be an expression of the gift economy and the outcome will be a true co-creation of all who attend. One of the most exciting things about this un-conference is that we have no budget. Freedom, trust, creativity and inspiring others to give their services (and gifts) for the joy of it. And loving TimeBank and the people that make that happen.

We can't wait to begin. Email to register your interest in attending: thegiftunconference@gmail.com

Twilight Street-Orienteering

Lyttelton Wednesday 12 February

Lyttelton hosts the summer evening street orienteering series. Locals are very welcome to come along and participate. Precise location and start time will be on www.papo.org.nz nearer the day. The entry fee is $10, regardless of the number of people using the one map.

Peninsula and Plains Orienteers (PAPO) run this popular series each Wednesday in February. With a massed start, participants plot their own course as soon as they can look at the map. The goal is to choose a route that will enable walkers and runners to collect as many points as they can around Lyttelton and get back to base on time.

Just after the twilight event PAPO rolls out the big free "Give it a Go - Orienteering" day at Bottle Lake in conjunction with the City Council. It's on Sunday 16 February, and participants can start any time between 10:30am and 12:30pm.

For more information on these events checkout www.papo.org.nz and www.bethere.co.nz and check up for precise details a few days prior.

Sunday 16 March 2014

Plans are underway for the 2014 Governors Bay Fete. Entry forms for the Produce/Baking/Photography and Pavlova classes are available from the Governors Bay Hotel and She Cafe.

We will be needing volunteers to help run our stalls, i.e. the white elephant, book stall, etc so if you can spare us an hour or so on the day it would be much appreciated. If you can help can you please call me so that I know how many people we have.

If you have any spare books, or items for the White Elephant stall please contact me and we can arrange delivery/pick up. We do not take clothing as we have found in the past it does not sell. If anyone would like to have a stall or an activity please contact Annabelle 3299 712 or 027 222 4604.

Bujinkan Martial Arts in Lyttelton

Union Church, 40 Winchester Street, Lyttelton

It's that time of year, where are we inspired to do something new, different or something that you've always wanted to do. Embrace it but more importantly do something about it. You've always wanted to start a martial art right? Well here is the perfect opportunity to start fresh with other new students.

What is Bujinkan? The Bujinkan is a collection of nine different schools (including samurai and ninjutsu schools) which use a variety of skills, ideas and weapons to protect yourself and the people around you. Classes are taught in a safe, relaxed, friendly manner by a licensed Bujinkan instructor who has trained in several countries and travels to Japan to advance his own training. It's through these connections that the instructor is able to pass on the art as it's taught today. The best way to understand is to train, so grab a friend and turn up.

Who can Attend? Classes are open to both men and women aged sixteen upwards. No previous martial arts experience is necessary, practitioners of other arts are also welcome. You don't need to be fit or in your twenties to start.

Regular classes contain following and more:

Junan taiso:	conditioning, flexibility, fitness.
Ukemi:	moving safely/rolling in any direction.
Taijutsu:	energy efficient movement.
Dakentaijutsu:	effective striking.
Jutaijutsu:	restraints, locks, takedowns.
Buki:	traditional and non weaponry

The course runs every Wednesday in February and costs $40 ($10 per session). Bujinkan Martial Arts training in Lyttelton with Shaun Weatherall. Works Advice Notice - Sumner Rd (Reserve to Windy Point) Rockfall Risk Remediation

Christchurch City Council are moving forward with works to progressively remove the rockfall hazards above Sumner Rd between Reserve Terrace and Windy Point from 10 – 28 February 2014.

During this period we request that the public remain clear of this area due to the risks associated with the multiple hazards in this working environment. Please note that while it is unlikely to affect track users, temporary closures of the upper part of Urumau Reserve Track may be necessary to stop track users for the time it takes to roll or break some boulders, between 8am and 5pm Monday to Friday.

The area of Sumner Road affected by this work is currently closed and will remain closed during these works. Structures down slope of the road will be protected by ballasted shipping containers which have been placed as an interim protection measure. We aim to minimise any disruption to affected residents and other users of the area. Daily signage will be posted to continually advise the public of our activities.

If you wish to speak with Geovert regarding these works please phone Mat Avery on 021 354 470 or contact by email mat.avery@geovert.com. Any further questions for Council officers can be directed to porthillsgeotech@ccc.govt.nz.

Thank you for your understanding and patience which will ensure these works are completed safely and in a timely manner.

'The Dirt Dr' courses with Pania Robinson

- Half Hour Urban Eden Saturday 24th May 9.30 – 4pm

An average of half an hour a week is all it should take to maintain a garden to feed a family of four, using the "Dirt Dr" techniques, so come along and find out how!

Pania will show us how to start a chemical free garden from scratch and maintain its high productivity. With practical methods of dealing with weeds and thermal compost creation, this workshop is suitable for home gardeners and micro-farmers.

- Microbes - Bringing Life to Your Soil Sunday 25th May 9.30 – 4pm

Use and generate microorganisms to help repair and enhance your garden. Learn why a healthy, living soil means less work for you and how to introduce beneficial microbes into your garden using compost and compost tea. Discover how to save time, money and energy and leave with a whole new perspective of your garden and what you need to create healthy and productive soil. Also learn how to grow plants from seed and give them a healthy start.

For more information, please see www.dirtdoctor.co.nz

Each Dirt Dr course: unwaged $60 , waged $80, or do both courses for $140

Although each course stands alone, it is well worth doing both as they follow on from each other.

All courses are at Seven Oaks, 35 Hassals Lane, Opawa, unless otherwise specified.

To pay the early bird rate, payment must be received two weeks' in advance (see the date specified for each course.)

Bookings and prepayment are essential for all courses – we need a minimum number to go ahead, and we also have limited spaces available.
