Lyttelton Harbour Review is a 100% voluntary community newsletter initiative developed after the February 2011 earthquake by local Professionals Real Estate Agent Lynnette Baird, and Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre Chairperson Wendy Everingham.

The objective of the Lyttelton Harbour Review is to help keep local residents informed with what is going on in the wider Lyttelton Harbour community. Of course the success of the Lyttelton Harbour Review could not be possible without the ongoing support and enthusiasm from the wider community. A big thank you goes out to everyone who sends information; is willing to be interviewed by a couple of amateurs; or lets us know what might be happening in the neighbourhood. The Lyttelton Harbour Review project would not be possible without you all.

If you have an event, topic or cause that you would like to share with the harbour community, then Lynnette or Wendy would love to hear from you:

PLEASE! No Dog Poo's

Children Take a Stand Against Dog Poo at The Grassy

"We are frustrated!" is the call from a group of Lyttelton Primary Students. Like all kids students Tarne, James, Connor, Cirar, Robbie and Will just want to run about, have fun and play sport during their breaks.

With the shift to the former St Joseph's site, finding larger spaces for the children to play on has become harder. "The new school site is much smaller, so to find a place to play soccer is difficult as the other kids are playing four square and other activities on the available space" said Tarne.

The only other area available for soccer is the Grassy on Oxford Street. "We play up there, but all the time there is dog poo in the grass. We step in it and it stinks. It's horrible playing up there when that happens" the group told us.

This has sparked the group into action. They don't want dog poo in their playing area. They have written a letter to the Schools Board of Trustees to highlight their issue and to get some help.

For the wider public the students have written a sign letting residents know they don't want dog poo at the grassy. If it happens they want you to pick it up.

The students would like to see a permanent sign at the grassy to let residents know that they need to clean up their dog poo because it's a children's play area. They would also like a dog poo dispenser bags installed.

The Board of Trustees is supporting their request and will help them with the sign.

Their next step is to approach the Community Board to see if they can help them with the doggy bags. Talking to the Lyttelton Review has helped them publicise the issue.

Principal Diana Feary highlighted the Grassy is the only other area the children have to play on. In most schools dogs are prohibited from school play areas but in Lyttelton we have shared spaces.

Next time you are at the Grassy with your dog, please think of the children and do the right thing—pick up your dog's poo's!

Godley Cafe

Been There Lately?

Godley Cafe is looking great. Over the winter owner Michelle Anderton has had the builders busy and a lovely covered in area has been added to the deck.

Doubling the space for visitors and locals it's a welcome addition to the cafe. Sitting there over coffee the sun is shining in, it's warm and cosy. The space is going to be perfect for the SPRIG summer music programmes and all the other interesting events that happen in the vicinity of the former Godley House.

It's great to see more opportunities for the Diamond Harbour community to socialise. "We have been hosting mid week roast dinners for residents and just recently a poets evening was held here" said Michelle.

The cafe like most places around the harbour is an important meeting place for locals. Did you know that each Wednesday morning the cafe is used as a meeting place for Timebankers? Locals can pop in and chat to the Diamond Harbour Timebank co-ordinator Sarah Pritchett.

The cafe is open Wednesday to Sunday from 9am and year round its open Friday evening for dinner. A good selection of home made food options including some vegan, vegetarian and gluten free – everything is made on the premises using locally sourced produce and free range eggs. They have special group menus as well.

If you have special events Michelle's team are happy to cater for you, all you need to do is have a conversation. With more space they are also stocking a small range of home accessories made by locals. Check out the interesting hide bags

Some more events are planned for the upcoming months. Keep an eye on their new website www.godleyhouse.co.nz. The cafe is a short walk from the ferry. Godley Cafe, 2e Waipapa Ave, Diamond Harbour. Phone 03 329 4880

Dogs of the Vastness

Lyttelton and the Ice dogs of Antarctica

Launched late August at the Naval Point Club this is a lovely book written by Ben Brown and illustrated by Trish Bowles.

"The Ice Dogs of Lyttelton made Antarctic Exploration possible. They were frustrating, courageous, tenacious, loyal and loved. When governments wanted the last dogs at Scott Base shot, one man Bob McKerrow, pledged everything he had to save them.

Their story is now told by one of those dogs. Factual anecdotes show how Antarctica has become The Great White continent of science, discovery and international collaboration.

The New Zealand Antarctic society's Canterbury branch brings you this stunningly illustrated story to captivate children from 7 to 107. Ben brown's text and insightful research is perfect for reading aloud, while Trish Bowles' sumptuous illustrations bring to life these difficult, head strong, wild and wonderful dogs for you to enjoy.

All proceeds from this book go to projects of lasting value to New Zealand and Antarctica." (Excerpt from the book)

Amongst other locations, the book is available locally from:

50 Years of the h to Lyttelton Road

The Second Hole in the Hill

Commemoration of the Christchurch to Lyttelton Road Tunnel

Launched at the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre on September 2, Paul Corliss has written an interesting account of the history of our tunnel. "This short history well covers the tunnel's story – of the transport demands in the nineteenth century and the quakes of this, the twenty-first century". Excerpt from the book.

The launch coincided with the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre's AGM. Some very interesting characters gathered to celebrate the occasion. Construction Superintendent Doug Joy attended, all the way from Darfield. He loved telling his stories from the time. Unbeknown to us, the original tunnel plans were not what was finally built. Doug told the gathered audience that the original tunnel was supposed to be built from McCormick's Bay and traffic was to have entered the port from the eastern side. Imagine how nice Norwich Quay would have been if this plan had happened? Instead politics of the time intervened and some councillors did not want the tunnel going under Mount Pleasant so it was diverted to its current position. Doug lamented the 22 homes that he had to destroy in Lyttelton.

Aside from that Doug was very proud of the team who built the tunnel and particularly how well it survived all the earthquakes. It was lovely to have local Kit Chambers, a Heathcote tunnel observer in attendance as well as Ernie Collins and Connie Sinclair. Ernie provided many great photos for the book. Some readers may remember Connie Sinclair. Her husband ran the former Sinclair Melbourne. She enjoyed catching up with many people that she hadn't seen for some time.

Doug had great stories about assembling the team for the job. No one was an experienced tunneller. They literally took engineering graduates straight from the University and together they all learnt how to bore and make this hole together. "At the end of the job one of the best things was we were able to sell all the equipment to the project at Manapuri. The equipment and many of the men headed south as tunnel experts"!

This book has been written as a labour of love by Paul Corliss. Funding was sourced from the Lyttelton Mount Herbert Community Board, Ernie Collins and Connie Sinclair and the Lyttelton Community Association. Paul has very kindly donated the book to the Lyttelton Information Centre. Copies are available at the Information Centre.

Tug Lyttelton Visit Thursday 18 September 2014, 7.00pm

The tug is over 100 years old, coal fired and steam driven, a real part of Lyttelton history so well worth a visit and support. For the tug's enthusiasts this is a publicity bonus, for us a very memorable experience and a glimpse into a piece of bygone technology which is still working.

The conducted tour of the vessel is opportunity to see the inner workings of the vessel with a level of detail and in depth questions that a pleasure cruise does not allow. This is a fine example of British steam engineering, the two main engines are compound, reciprocating steam engines fitted with condensers. Further information about the tug is available on their web site: www.tuglyttelton.co.nz 19.30 – The function begins on board the tug, tour of the vessel, talk by one of the crew about the tug's history and what they are doing to keep it working. There will be a hand out and the gift and souvenir shop will be open so that visitors can buy memorabilia and there will be a donation box. We finish with Tea, coffee, eats, and socialising with the tug's skipper and crew.

All Welcome. Members and non members, young and old. But please note: this is a visit. We will not be going for a cruise.

Waste Minimisation: Coffee Cups

You may or may not know that one of Project Lyttelton's projects over the years has been waste minimisation and education around waste. For our festivals, we work hard to prevent waste and to deal with it responsibly when we do create it.

The waste minimisation project has been taken up again recently, with a few goals and initiatives we will share with you over the next months. One of the first areas of waste the project plans to address is the takeaway coffee cup.

It is great to see that our local cafes are all aware of the situation with takeaway cups. Are you? Did you know:

- No takeaway cups or lids are recycled in Christchurch
- No 'bio' cups are recycled or composted in Christchurch (in fact these can jam the compost and recycling machines)
- Coffee cups make up the largest volume of waste in public rubbish bins

One local cafe has calculated the number of takeaway cups they use as exceeding 3,500 per year - multiply that by three cafes (and add the festivals and farmers market) and imagine how much waste that amounts to in coffee cups alone.

At Civil and Naval you get 50 cents off your coffee if you bring your own reusable cup. Several outlets in Lyttelton are selling the "Love Lyttelton" ideal cup – a reusable coffee cup made here in New Zealand. You can get one from Harris and Turner, The Harbour Co-Op, the Lyttelton Farmers Market or the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre.

Lyttelton Coffee Culture is currently running a completion – every time a guest uses a reusable cup, they go into the draw to win a $200 top up on their culture cards: $100 for them and $100 for a friend.

A local business owner, Maree from Henry Trading, has another solution – just bring a cup from home! Maree told me that this practice started for her about three years ago when she was keeping all her coffee cups for use in her potting studio. After a year, the volume of cups was huge – and there were far too many to use in the studio. Now she has a collection of beautiful wee cups – exactly the sort she likes for the size and type of coffee she prefers, fine china – and she has never broken one.

Project Lyttelton and several London Street business owners are also looking into possibilities for a local composting system that will be able to handle large volumes of compostible takeaway cups – a worm farm, hot rot system or other form of composting.

For more information about waste minimisation, check out www.ourdailywaste.co.nz online or on Facebook.

More Photos to Come to Life

Thursday September 11 the Lyttelton Library hosted an evening to celebrate the photographic work of Jae Renaut. Jae's wonderful black and white photographic history of Lyttelton from the 1980's have come to life with the installation of three beautifully framed installations around London Street.

This is just a small snippet of the collection and Jae's dream is that more funding will be sourced so that more of our loved buildings can be brought to life again at street level.

He thanked Annette Williams, Peter Stephen, the site owners and others for their help and support. He also highlighted that it's time for another detailed photographic study focusing on the re-development of the Port.

Rushani's Cake For Greatness

Celebrating One Year On

Friday 19 September is Cake for Greatnesses first birthday. Unfortunately we will be out of the country by then, so I have decided to honour this great anniversary by delivering not one, but three cakes this week:

Teresa Cameron and Margaret Jefferies and two very worthy recipients of Cake for Greatness and it was with great pride I delivered them each a Chocolate Stout Cake with caramel to the Project Lyttelton hui at Rapaki marae.

Teresa Cameron is a familiar face around Lyttelton. She puts so much passion and energy into the Garage Sales. She's incredibly caring and looks after everyone who pops in and out of the Garage Sale always going that extra mile an example of this being the lovely space she created for children to play so their mums can shop easily. She looks after the elderly who pop in and out and just makes everyone feel really welcome. A real gem, with a smile for everyone.

She has also been a great support to the Community House and Lyttelton Youth Centre, helping with fundraising opportunities through the garage sale and being willing to help whenever she visits.

Margaret Jefferies is the visionary leader of Project Lyttelton (PL) who has helped inspire all the great projects PL have delivered since 2003. In particular she taught PL what Appreciative Inquiry is all about. She brought the TimeBank concept to New Zealand, She has helped PL create Lyttelton's culture of possibilities. She holds our collective vision and is generally an inspiring, motivated woman. A humble and lovely woman.

Joining our Cake for Greatness whanau as the 19th recipients are the lovely ladies at the Lyttelton Library. Nominated a number of times for creating a beautifully warm, inviting environment at our community library. I have always been impressed how they know everyones name! Always very helpful, kind and interested in how our life is going. Belinda Walker also nominated the library staff for being very understanding and tolerant during the rebuild of the Loons. Ladies, I hope you enjoy your riesling syrup cake with raspberries and flowers from my garden.

And that concludes our first birthday celebrations! Its been great delivering an extra three cakes this week to unsuspecting do-gooders and their reaction, as always, was priceless.

Photos of our Cake for Greatness whanau are up on our website, share it amongst friends and get the word out about this excellent initiative www.rushanis.co.nz.

Cake for Greatness is not possible without the support of all those who nominate people and I want to take a moment to thank all of you who have sent in nominations. Thank you also to all of you who have sent in nominations for me! Ha!! Unfortunately I'm not really a fan of sweet things, but I appreciate the thought all the same.

Cake for Greatness will be taking a break while we're away, but keep the nominations rolling in through either Facebook or my website. The next delivery will be in early November.

The Southern Lights

Beauty of Auraura Australis

The time line in history really doesn't matter, for me it was 1942 in Lyttelton on a warm quiet night around 1.15am. I was woken by my parents and told to get dressed and make my way outside the house to an area where it was possible to look at the dark sky and stars.

Being told to look carefully in the southern direction above the harbour you might just be lucky to see the wonderful southern lights from the South Pole.

Minutes later the dark night sky very gradually changed to a light green and advancing from the horizon to above our heads the intensity of the green light strengthened covering almost half of the night sky.

It was almost like a moon rise without the circle of the moon.

As we gazed at the beautiful intense colour against the black night sky our hearts thumped with amazement at the sheer beauty of the slowly swirling patterns of strange light above our heads. From memory the intense green sky display lasted for about 20 or so minutes, then as it began the light gradually faded and minutes later it was gone.

Some years later and memory does not recall the month but about the same time on another night I was to see for the first time the rare and beautiful display of intense red aurora light rising from the south. The port looked so strange under the intense red light.

I was told much later to have seen the red light display was rare in this part of the world. I have often wondered how many folk were awake and looking at the sky as i did those years ago. What a privilege it has been to have witnessed both the green and red displays of the southern lights right here in Lyttelton.

Auraura australis are the southern lights. Auraura bora allis are the northern lights.

ADVISORY NOTICE

A scrap vessel is expected to arrive in Lyttelton on Tuesday 16 September 2014.

Ship Name: Anacapa Light

Cargo: Scrap Steel

Expected arrival: 16 September 2014 1.30am (operations start 7.00am)

Expected departure: 18 September 4.30pm

LPC, the exporter and the stevedore are taking all practical steps to minimise the effects on the community while the scrap metal is being loaded in the inner harbour due to damage to our main wharves at Cashin Quay. Scrap is a very difficult cargo to handle from a noise perspective. To minimise impact of noise, rubber pads have lined the vessels.

We appreciate the community's patience and understanding while we operate with these constraints. These shipments occur infrequently, approximately four times per year.

Shipping schedules can be checked on our website www.lpc.co.nz.

If anyone requires more information on the procedures in place, email us at enquiries@lpc.co.nz or call us on 03 328 8198.

We thank you for your patience and understanding during this time.

Kind regards

GEORGE PHILIPS

General Cargo Manager

Fair Winds and Calm Seas

Little Ship Club of Canterbury

September 2014

Welcome to Fair Winds and Calm Seas our 4th newsletter of the Little Ship Club of Canterbury for 2014. The Little Ship Club exists for those with a love of the sea and all things nautical to get together to share their experience and knowledge. All ages and experience welcome.

New in this months newsletter is a Celestial Navigation Course, a visit to the Tug Lyttelton, a Yacht for sale and the first entry in our favourite moorings section.

You don't need to be a member to come along to our meetings, but joining does help us to keep an interesting event program, and you get to join our mailing list for reminders. Annual membership fees of $20 may be paid to the treasurer at any meeting, or by bank transfer to account 030802 0094950 00. If paying by bank transfer, please add your name and phone number to the transaction details. Then please email the treasurer your details and we will email you a receipt.

Recent Meetings:

June: Jamie Welford, Lyttelton Harbour pilot. Talked about studying for captains papers and long voyages on VLCCs. Explained about pilot's responsibilities and limit of pilots authority. Dangers of wind, local conditions, language problems, managing tugs. Handed out a working form which is used as a plan for each pilotage and explained how piloting works, simulators, exams and certification process.

At our July meeting we were the guests of Hamish Oakley at Bridon Cooks (Gourocks). We had a very enjoyable and informative evening. We heard about the Company's long history in the marine business, saw the vast array of products the Company supplies to the marine industry, every imaginable form of rope and cordage, blocks, nets, clothing, buoys, floats. A truly staggering inventory all neatly organised in a big warehouse. We saw a fascinating work of art commissioned by the City Council a huge fishing net sculpture and some very impressive spliced and formed rope work made on site for customers. We also watched in admiration as Lee demonstrated her knowledge and skills as a splicer. The evening ended with group indulgence in cakes, coffee and savouries in the Company's canteen.

Our thanks to Hamish and the team @ Bridon.

Canterbury Yachtie of the Year Awards

The CYA sponsored yachting awards for 2014 were held last Friday evening. Canterbury class champions for the past season were applauded along with nominated "On Water" and "Off Water" volunteers. Lindsay Russel from the Stewarts Gully Sailing Club won the off water award for his multiple and sustained administrative roles at his home club. Naval Point's Robbie Norris won the on water award for his Rescue Boat and course laying work on the Harbour. The overall winner of the Canterbury Yachtie of the year Trophy was Tristin Ornsby of Naval Point who was the only Canterbury champion to have won two national titles in the past season. Our congratulations to Tristin and his crew(s).

Tristin and brother Joel with the Trophy below.

Tug Lyttelton

the Little Ships Club invites all members to join in their visit to the historic Tug Lyttelton.

The tug is over 100 years old and is one of the few coal fired steam vessels still in working order.

Meet at the Tug at the inshore end of Number 2 wharf , over the bridge at the bottom of Oxford Street Lyttelton, at 7 pm. Car parking is street side on the town side of the overbridge,

The alternative is to arrange for car pooling from NPCL at 6.45 pm.

Support Boat Training

For budding Rescue Boat crew, parents who want to help with junior sailing and for Waka support crew. The Club is running a training day on Saturday 20 Sept starting at 9 am upstairs in the clubhouse. The course covers basic rules and regulations, practical information about the Club boats and on water training on current best practice support boat techniques.

the course is a prerequisite for Club boat use.

Please register with the office so that we can organise the use of the boats and trainers.

Crew Opportunities

Fewer young adults (20-35 year olds) are being seen out on the water these days. To encourage participation here is a list and contact numbers of TY skippers who

The visit is at no charge but donations to the Tug are suggested.

Junior Windsurf Day

Welcome to a new and hopefully windy windsurf season ,
 We are planning a day at Naval Point, next Sunday, 14th September from 9 am. First on the agenda will be a rubbish clean up around the foreshore, rigging area and club as part of the national clean-up-NZ-day. Gloves and rubbish bags provided.(Its national Keep new Zealand Beautiful Week.)
 We will have a BBQ lunch following this and a quick meeting to discuss what we will be doing this season. We need your ideas.
 This will also be a great opportunity to clean out the container, check the gear, plan our calendar and if we are lucky go for a sail.
 It is probably a good idea to form a parents committee so that we can address funding, camps, out of town trips, etc.
 NPCL Opening Day is 27th Sept
 With learn to windsurf course starting on 18th Oct
 The Windsurf Camp dates are Jan 18th to 21st giving a days rest before RSX and Techno Nationals which start on 23rd to 25th Jan 2015. Put this in the diary!
 Slalom Nationals are two weeks later starting Feb 4th.
 Looking forward to seeing you all next week - start getting fit it's a big season.

Work notice update: Brittan Terrace, Lyttelton, retaining wall rebuild

What: Work to repair the retaining wall at the intersection of Brittan Terrace, Cressy Terrace and Voelas Road was put on hold. The original repair was delayed due to the need for further redesign. The extent of the damage was worse than expected and required further design. We are now going to rebuild the retaining wall using concrete cantilever. During the work Cressy Terrace will be closed to ensure the safety of the staff and the motorists. The weight of a vehicle could cause the road to collapse. We are going to drive timber piles down along the edge of the cut face to stop the road collapsing further and protect our staff during the repair work.

When: Monday 22 September for approximately two months.

Traffic update: Brittan Terrace will remain open to two way traffic via traffic lights. 4 Cressy Terrace to the intersection of Cressy Terrace, Voelas Road and Brittan Terrace will be closed. The intersection of Voelas Road and Brittan Terrace will be closed.

Where we are working: Brittan Terrace, Cressy Terrace and Voelas Road intersection retaining wall

Traffic Management:

- Brittan Terrace will remain open to two way traffic via temporary traffic lights.
- 4 Cressy Terrace to the intersection of Cressy Terrace, Voelas Road and Brittan Terrace will be closed. The intersection of Voelas Road and Brittan Terrace will also be closed.
- There will be no parking opposite the work site.

Update on Brittan Terrace wall:
Handrails are being installed.
Anti Graffiti paint to be done this week.
Redesign needed for the section by 30 Brittan Terrace.

General Information:

Please contact Fulton Hogan on 0800 277 3434 if you have any specific access requirements that we need to consider e.g. nurse/doctor visits, Meals on Wheels, or planned works on your property.

Our standard work hours are Monday to Friday between the hours of 7.00am to 6.00pm.

There will be increased noise, dust and vibration levels.

Works will have no planned impact on current power, telecommunication, water or gas services. However, the network is still fragile so please be prepared in case there is an unexpected service cut off.

All works are subject to favourable weather and on-site construction conditions.

Safety is our number one priority. Safety is your responsibility too. Stay clear and stay alert - keep children and pets at a safe distance from the work site.

If you are not the owner of this property please pass this leaflet onto your landlord or property manager.
