SPECIAL EDITION

Focus on Draft Lyttelton Master Plan

In a week so much can change. On Thursday afternoon the Draft Lyttelton Master Plan will be presented to the Christchurch City Council for consideration.

The Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre has secured a copy of the document being presented, and on first glance it appears to be more aligned to community desires than was feared at the public meeting held last Monday.

Whilst there are still many things that could be improved if the plan is adopted by the Christchurch City Council, everyone in the community will all be able to comment further on the outcomes.

The Draft Lyttelton Master Plan will be presented to the City Council at the Beckenham Library Board Room, 66 Colombo Street, on Thursday morning at around 9.30am by Christchurch City Council Project Team Leader Mark Rushworth.

Everyone is warmly encourage to come along to this Council meeting, as it is your chance to hear first hand about the amended draft Lyttelton Master Plan version and to support the Lyttelton delegation who are going to the council meeting to request more positive changes to the engagement process.

Much of the Lyttelton Review today is devoted to explaining the consultation process undertaken to date; the issues raised over the past week by the local community and community groups; and where the draft Lyttelton Master Plan process will now take us from here.

Rest assured, the Lyttelton Review will return next week with its usual diverse local media content that you have all come to enjoy. Remember too that your thoughts and feedback are always welcomed:

The Lyttelton Mt Herbert Community Board held a Public Forum Meeting last Monday evening to discuss Lyttelton’s recovery, and in particular, the Lyttelton Draft Master Plan that the Christchurch City Council has been developing. Representatives from the Lyttelton Mt Herbert Community Board were in attendance to listen to the views of Lyttelton residents.

A crowd exceeding 100 people attended, but unfortunately many residents were turned away because of a lack of capacity within the Trinity Hall. Those who attended unanimously supported the motion to reject the Draft Master Plan, and further, to prevent it from being presented to the Christchurch City Council next week on Thursday 27th October. Residents strongly vocalised that the Draft Master Plan had failed to capture the spirit of public opinion on items clearly identified in the Community Board Recovery Plan, developed prior to the instigation of the Council sponsored Lyttelton Draft Master Plan.

Several residents expressed concern that if the Lyttelton Draft Master Plan is supported in its current form, that we would be locked into outcomes that would be detrimental to Lyttelton’s future development. In particular residents were concerned that there is a lack of overall vision for the township and specifically no longer term vision for taking heavy vehicles off Norwich Quay or linking the township to the inner harbour.

There was also a significant degree of concern about the consultation process, and how the community has not been given a proper participatory role in the process. Residents made it very clear that the only activity they wanted to happen immediately was to resolve regulatory issues in the existing District Plan so that operating and re-opening local businesses could be made easier.

If you couldn’t make it to the meeting on Monday night, or want to express further views on this topic, please contact your local council representatives:

Councillor Reid Responds

Residents Calls are Premature

Calls to reject the yet to be released draft Lyttelton Master Plan are totally premature. What the community was told during the workshops in July, was based on an initial response to the ideas raised by the community. Since then the draft plan has been further modified. It remains a work in progress.

It is a disservice to the people of Lyttelton to suggest that this is a fait accompli. The plan has not been finalised or made available. To give it a thumbs down before it has even been seen or considered is a disgraceful example of self-serving political manoeuvring.

For the record, the draft plan will be considered by the Council on Thursday, 27 October at the Beckenham Service Centre. This will be available online at www.ccc.govt.nz from Friday, 21 October or can be studied at Lyttelton Library and Service Centre next week.

The draft master plan will be made available for community feedback and submissions in November. A summary will be delivered to all households in Lyttelton and adjacent harbour communities. This is the time to express your views and opinions on the draft master plan.

A Process of Confusion

Understanding the Draft Master Plan Process

Since the Community Board Public Forum meeting on Monday 17th, there has been a flurry of activity and conversations are flowing. A significant number of residents around Lyttelton have been left confused by the process used for the recovery of Lyttelton.

Initial partnership styled discussions between residents and the Lyttelton Mt Herbert Community Board following February 22nd were exemplary.

The Lyttelton community expressed high regard for the five community board members at last week's meeting, and make no mistake the conversations flowing since this meeting are not a call of dissatisfaction at the community board, but rather the process and outcomes from initiatives implemented by the Christchurch City Council.

Conflict often comes from confusion. And confusion reigns in this instance because many residents and business owners are looking to the Christchurch City Council for both a Recovery Plan vision and actions for the future direction of Lyttelton, both short and long term.

Community Board Chairperson, Paula Smith, has sought to clarify some points around the Lyttelton Master Plan, and an attachment to this broadcast has been submitted so that we can all get a clearer understanding about what is happening and how we can continue to participate in the process.

We work to unravel some of the confusion around the process and terminology used to date:

April 2011: Lyttelton Community Recovery Plan was instigated by the Community Board in April as a way to involve residents in the recovery process for Lyttelton. From the two public meetings held, the feedback was discussed, analysed, and a document outlining Lyttelton's recovery was presented to CERA and the Christchurch City Council for consideration.

May 2011: Lyttelton Suburban Centres Programme was launched in May by the Christchurch City Council to coordinate planning and assistance to restore the Lyttelton Township as a focal point for the local community. This process involved meetings on the Grassy and at the Recreation Centre.

July 2011: Proposed Draft Lyttelton Master Plan was a document released through a public meeting toward the end of July. This document was the result of the meetings held on the Grassy. In early August this document was released for public feedback. 145 feedback submissions were received. This document was then reviewed by five local expert residents, along with representatives from the Community Board, Christchurch City Council and the consultants - Urbanism+.

October 2011: Draft Lyttelton Master Plan is the final "draft" plan for Lyttelton due to be presented to the Christchurch City Council on Thursday 27th October for consideration. If the Council decides to approve the draft master plan for community consultation, it will be released for the public to make submissions in mid November. Christchurch City Council Staff are recommending a three week submission process.

October 2011: CERA Draft Recovery Strategy for Greater Christchurch provides an overarching direction for the reconstruction, rebuilding and long term recovery for greater Christchurch. CERA will work in conjunction with regional and territorial authorities to provide a timely and community supported recovery. Submissions to this initiative close on Sunday 30th October.

Where to From Here

Community Groups Present to Council

On Thursday 27th October, the Draft Lyttelton Master Plan will be submitted to the Christchurch City Council for consideration. Representatives from the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre, the Lyttelton Harbour Business Association, Lyttelton Community Association and Project Lyttelton will be attending this Christchurch City Council meeting, requesting that the way forward is:

Point One:

Engage in a Partnership Process

The Lyttelton community asks that the Christchurch City Council adopts a partnership process for the Lyttelton area. Lyttelton is a resourceful group of residents who are educated, highly skilled, passionate and willing to be actively involved in any redevelopment of Lyttelton.

The Consultative Process: The Christchurch City Council currently works with the community using a Consultative Process. A brief is drawn up by the Council and this sets the scene for the outcomes. The consultative approach, in this case, relies on the Council to contract an independent consultant to ask the Community what they would like to see, or change. The consultants take these comments and make recommendations to the Council, and the Council then decides what ideas will, or will not be supported.

There are several weaknesses in this method. The main issue being that the community and council are separated at the beginning of the process. Another issue is that consultants hired are not from the local community, and therefore lack the depth of knowledge required in developing a plan that truly reflects the wishes of the community.

The Partnership Process: Adopting a Partnership Process requires the Christchurch City Council to adopt a new way of thinking; or an innovative approach to township plans. The Partnership Process is a community driven process. Residents and community groups work closely with the Community Board by discussing the way forward together; solving problems along the way; and reaching a consensus.

The Community Board knows what the budget is and the planning guidelines. Lyttelton residents are experts in how we socialise; what is important to the region; where to find information; and who can undertake the workload to deliver the vision. Working together uses the expertise of council and residents, to create community ownership of future planning.

The weakness in this method is that it requires the Council to evolve their thought processes, and with any large corporation there is always resistance to change.

Point Two:

Focus on Recovery Priorities

Priority needs to be given to business recovery; getting people back in their homes; and repairing infrastructure.

If the acceptance of the Draft Lyttelton Master Plan and subsequent submission and hearing phase in anyway slows down these recovery priorities; then a decoupling of the Draft Lyttelton Master Plan should be considered. Extract the items of priority; and revisit the remaining ideas through a partnership process between the community; the Community Board; and the Lyttelton Port Company.

What is urgent?

What can we afford?

And, what resources and finances need to be directed to:

- Cutting the red tape process of over regulated bureaucracy to get businesses open;
- Creating a regulatory framework, including making changes to the District Plan as necessary, which will allow for appropriate and timely rebuilding;
- The redevelopment of London Street, including consideration of parking issues and appropriate parking solutions for the town centre; London Street building scale, form and height, etc
- Getting residents back in their homes;
- Providing a safe environment, by taking action on rock fall and subsidence issues;
- Repairing damaged infrastructure such as retaining walls; storm water flows and drains;
- Opening the road network including Evans Pass to assist residents, travellers, freight movement, and to prevent Lyttelton from being cut off, again.

Point Three:

Let the People Speak

- The consultation period is extended to four weeks. The Draft Lyttelton Master Plan document, at 98 pages long, is a huge and complex document to work through. Many people will struggle with a document like this.
- The beginning of the consultation period should start with a "Drop in Road Show" organised and paid for by the Christchurch City Council, similar to the one for the Central City that was held in the Recreation Centre on 3rd September, with enlarged maps and text for the most important sections of the Master Plan, and Council staff on hand to explain the document as well as encourage submissions.
- Following submissions and any further changes to the Draft Master Plan as a result of community consultation, the revised version is to be brought back to the community and Community Board PRIOR to being presented to the Council for adoption. This is an important step missing in the Council process after Stage 5, as outlined on Page 20 of the Draft Lyttelton Master Plan document. The current Stage 5 process shows the Draft Lyttelton Master Plan going out for consultation, then straight to the Council for adoption.
- Request that submissions also be heard by the wider community. It is acknowledged that hearings are reserved for statutory documents, and as the Draft Lyttelton Master Plan is not a statutory document, hearings are not required. Residents of Lyttelton believe that if it is good enough for submissions to the Central City Plan to be heard, then the same process should democratically apply to the Lyttelton Plan.
- The collective network welcomes and thoroughly supports the Lyttelton Mt Herbert Community Board initiative of forming a Lyttelton Urban Design Advisory Committee to incorporate three consultants and two community representatives; to create a balance between local ideal and council process.

LYTTELTON HARBOUR ARTS COLLECTIVE

The Harbour Light site on London Street has a new "Act of Art" in the form of a light sculpture created by a small group of students from the University of Canterbury's College of Business n' Economics.

The group of students, have been working closely with Trent Hiles (coordinator of the Gap Filler initiative) to create a new project for Lyttelton.

As part of one of their courses, the students were required to choose, and work closely with a local community group to help the students become more actively involved in their communities, while aiding the local group in their own activities.

With the light sculpture installed, members of the group are looking to continue their light sculpture creating adventure by working with other interested community groups, and are currently looking at a design for Greening the Rubble's new Colombo Street site (next to the Dairy-in-a-Container)."

Point Four:

Return of the Inner Harbour

Any inner harbour and Norwich Quay redevelopment will determine design and rebuilding outcomes in the near future - which in turn will influence development of the township, economic potential, visitor appeal and desirability.

The Draft Lyttelton Master Plan has misinterpreted the communities thirty year aspiration of "engagement with the waterfront". The community continues to ask for actual inner harbour access - not viewing platforms to view the log piles; water views from a distance; and the roar of truck and trailer units rumbling down Norwich Quay.

The community has asked that inner harbour access to be returned to the community and all heavy traffic to be taken off Norwich Quay - totally, effectively and as soon as possible.

Short term "band-aid" solutions illustrated on Pages A2-2/3 should be removed in favour of further investigations into the 2003 proposal offered by the Lyttelton Port Company to return the inner harbour to the people.

CERA Recovery Plan

An Alternative Process

Residents and community groups need to know that an alternative process is running parallel to the Lyttelton Draft Master Plan. CERA has produced a Draft Recovery Strategy for the Christchurch area and submissions are due by Sunday, October 30th. This alternative process gives our community an opportunity to create the type of Recovery Plan that residents want. This is a community led recovery, with the view to working in partnership with the Community Board. We are fortunate to have many highly skilled people within our community who will enable Lyttelton to move forward in a more positive direction.

The Draft Lyttelton Master Plan about to be placed in front of the Christchurch City Council is not a statutory document. If there is ever to be a "Lyttelton Recovery Plan" then it needs to be identified and accepted by CERA. All community groups and residents are encouraged to respond to the CERA Strategy to ask that the various Lyttelton Recovery/Master Plan documents can be turned into a formalised, structured and relevant Recovery Plan. This will enable Lyttelton residents to keep engaging formally in the process.

If you don't have time to write your own submission but agree with what residents at the Monday night meeting thought, you will be able to download a template submission from the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre web site www.lytteltonharbour.info. Feel free to use this template in its entirety, modify, or use the blank form and create your own submission from scratch.

Points of Clarification

From the Lyttelton Mt Herbert Community Board

The Draft Lyttelton Master Plan has yet to be presented to the community. What the consultants presented at the Trinity Hall meeting in July was an analysis of ideas gathered from the community at the marquee workshops in June.

Community feedback was sought to test whether the concepts presented reflected what the community wants. The Draft Lyttelton Master Plan has been further developed in response to the feedback received and now provides for community involvement in the implementation of proposed projects and also allows for further adaptation even after the plan is adopted.

- The Draft Lyttelton Master Plan will be considered by the Council at their meeting next Thursday, 27 October, to be held at the Beckenham Service Centre. It is included in the Council agenda as an attachment to Item 6 on page 17. Item 6 is a report seeking Council's approval for the draft master plan to go out for community consultation next month.
- The Council's agenda is available to read on the CCC website www.ccc.govt.nz. A paper copy of the agenda should also be available at Lyttelton Library and at the Service Centre. Council agendas are required to be available to the public at least two working days before a meeting.
- At the meeting Council may consider it appropriate to amend the draft master plan.
- If the Council decides to approve the draft master plan for community consultation, it will be released for the public to make submissions in mid November.
- The submission period is likely to be at least three weeks.
- A summary of the draft master plan will be delivered to all houses in Lyttelton and adjacent harbour communities.
- The full document will be available online and paper copies will also be available. There will be plenty of publicity beforehand about where the draft plan can be viewed and about how and when submissions can be made.
- If you have concerns about the master-planning process or the projects proposed in the draft master plan this will be your best opportunity to say so.
- Please do not assume the Draft Lyttelton Master Plan is a document "set in stone".

Plenty of emails this week regarding the Lyttelton Swimming Pool, here are two examples, and a response from Claudia Reid:

I've decided to join the chorus of Lyttelton voices that would dearly like to see the Norman Kirk pool reopened for this summer. We are really in need of a focus for this summer. I have three small children and we want something to do with them in Lyttelton when the weather is good. At the moment, we having to take them across town to Brighton, to find a pool where they can have swimming lessons. We have always relied on the local pool as a family activity where we can reinforce their water skills and ensure that they are becoming safe around water. If the pool itself is serviceable, then any other aspects of the pool that need addressing due to the earthquake could surely be managed. I would happily volunteer my time to assist on repairing or making safe any infrastructure that would allow it to open for this summer. I am certain that I could find a large number of similarly minded people who would be willing to volunteer their time. Lyttelton folk are adaptable and we can cope without changing rooms and loos if we have to. Please pass on my plea to whoever is considering the options for the pool. The rebuild in Lyttelton will take a long time and we all accept that. However, all the families with children in Lyttelton would get a real lift if we could get them back in the pool. It is a really social experience that allows everyone to catch up in a positive way. Dave - Lyttelton Resident

Hello. Would others like the Norman Kirk pool to be available for use this summer ? Claudia Reid (Councillor) and Paula Smith (Community Board Chairperson) have been contacted by a group of harbour basin residents and asked to source information from the council on the current state and plans for the Norman Kirk pool in Lyttelton. The hope is that with this information we as a community can facilitate getting the pool open for summer, either with our labour and or our financial support by pre-purchasing tickets, or by providing some of the lifeguards to help reduce costs. As a focus for young people and families in the harbour basis the pool is a wonderful resource in the summer months. To help support making this happen please let our elected representatives know of your interest in this process. Dorje - Lyttelton

And thank you Councillor Claudia Reid for this response:

“ Sadly it appears the Norman Kirk Memorial pool at Lyttelton cannot be a quick fix as hoped. While the pool tank itself appears to be fine, there are other issues emerging about the land under the pool that indicate it will not be safe to use and is likely to remain closed for the summer. A formal announcement will be released later today or on Tuesday. ”

What is Time Banking?

Time Banking is a way of trading skills in a community. It uses time, rather than money, as the measurement tool. Members of a Time Bank share their skills with other members within the community and are given time credits for the work they do. With the credits they gain, each member can 'buy' someone else's time, and get the service they need.

Why Join Lyttelton Time Bank?

Time Banking adds a richness to Time Bankers' lives. As a concept it brings 'wealth', in the form of friendship, caring for one another, having our needs met from within our own community and getting help with things we can't do. Skills that are often taken for granted are valued - especially non-market economy skills - like mothering, basic home help and caring, friendliness, listening.

In Lyttelton as a result of the Time Bank we can see a tighter community forming. Friendships are forming between people of different backgrounds who would not usually have met. The elderly are being cared for and the skills they share are valued. Special needs people are encouraged to participate. Time Banking builds relationships and trust in a community. Everyone has something they can contribute to the wellbeing of the whole.

Everyone's Time is Equal

With Time Banking everybody's time is equal, no matter what type of work is done. 1 = 1. If you give one hour's work, you receive one hour time credit. If you have another member do one hour's work, they are paid one hour time credit. Every person is equally valued.

Here are a few examples of what Lyttelton Harbour residents are giving and receiving this week - can you help?

-  I would love a couple of helpers with the children's activities this Friday. No special skills needed, liking children and a big smile would help though. Even one hour between 11 and 1 would be a big help! - says Bettina at TimeBank
-  I am a solo Mama of three children, and I have never used a lawn mower before! I need someone to help me the first time, and perhaps help me for an hour in the garden? I would be so grateful to receive some help with this! - says Rachael
-  Gift Voucher for one round of 18 holes of golf at Terrace Downs to give away. Expires on 16 November. - says Bettina at TimeBank
-  We make fresh organic ice cream that we would love to share with others. The current flavours we have are caramel, chocolate, and vanilla that we can do in 500g freeze-able glass jars. We could also do a trade?? eggs for ice cream? milled flour for ice cream?? - says Christy & Giulio

Can You Help? Or How Can We Help You?

If you can help with any of these requests, or would like to include a request of your own, please contact the Time Bank team.
