Another Loss for Lyttelton

Recreation and Community Centre - Closed

The Lyttelton Recreation Centre, consisting of two adjoining buildings – a community centre built in 1963 and a recreation centre built in 1984; was closed down today pending more structural assessments.

After completing a detailed engineering evaluation of the Lyttelton Recreation Centre, structural engineers have recommended that the centre should close, and that the facility will need to be earthquake strengthened before reopening.

Engineers conducted a Level Two Rapid Assessment of the building after the 22 February earthquake and it received a green sticker. The Level Two Rapid Assessment is a visual inspection of the inside and outside of the building to identify any obvious structural damage.

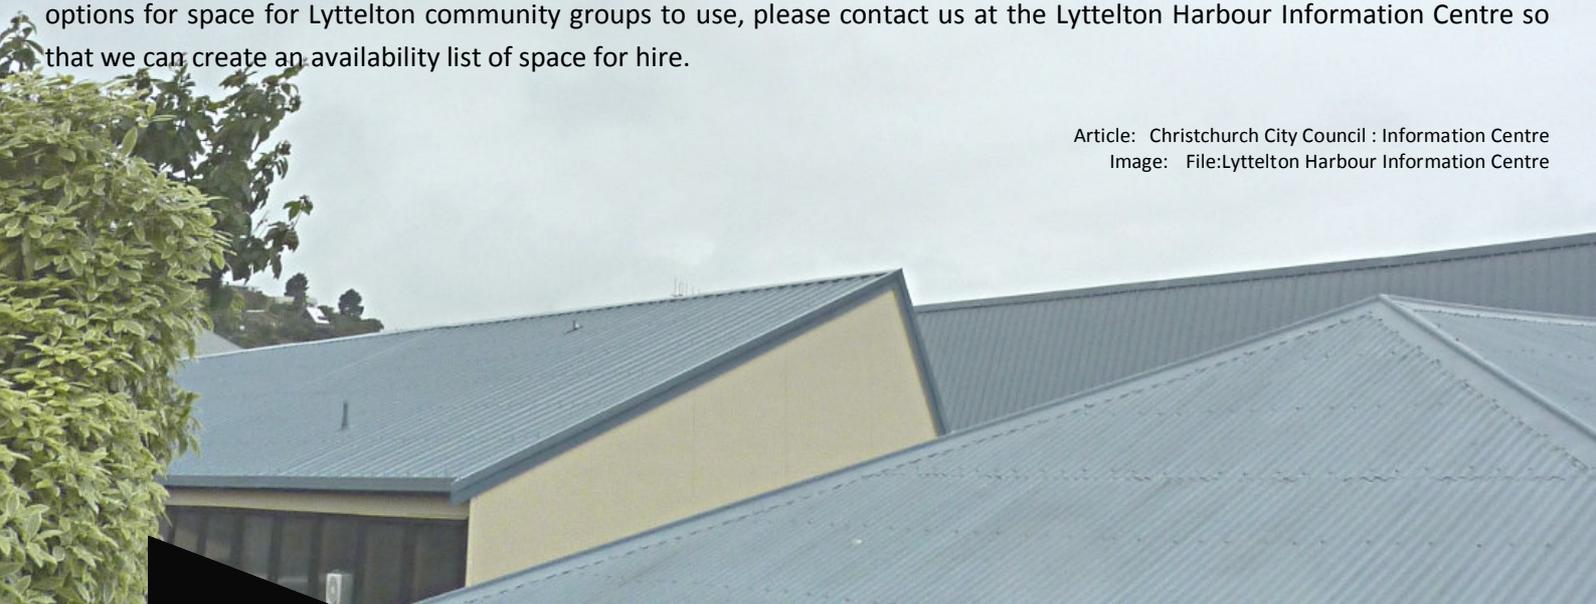

However, the latest assessment is a more detailed evaluation of the building, including an estimation of its capacity to withstand future earthquakes. It is part of an ongoing process being carried out by the Christchurch City Council to proactively ensure all its facilities undergo full engineering reviews after the earthquakes.

Christchurch City Council Community Services General Manager, Michael Aitken, says the Council is conscious that the closure will cause inconvenience for members of the community who use the facility or who have upcoming events booked. “However, the safety of people using the facility is our priority and we must ensure residents are not put at risk in the event of future earthquakes,” he says.

Currently the Recreation Centre is used for a range of community events including: Plunket Play Group; Pre-School Music Box; Tumble Times; Toy Library; Karate; Pilates; Belly Dancing; Dance Classes; Tai Chi; Recreational Gymnastics; Yoga; Jiu Jitsu; Seniors Fitness; not to mention Council, community group meetings and acting as Lyttelton’s Civil Defence Centre.

Pressure for community space in Lyttelton is evident and we are in dire need of solutions. If you can offer some alternative options for space for Lyttelton community groups to use, please contact us at the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre so that we can create an availability list of space for hire.

Lyttelton's 161st Anniversary

Commemoration of the Pilgrims' Landing

On 16th December, Canterbury Anniversary Day, a commemoration gathering to celebrate the 161st anniversary of the Pilgrims' landing will be held at "The Rock" in Norwich Quay at 10.00am. It was at 10.00am on the 16th December 1850 the "Charlotte Jane" arrived in Lyttelton Harbour after having been at sea for ninety nine days, having left Plymouth, England on 7th September that year.

Shortly after their arrival the first passengers disembarked to come ashore within the vicinity of "The Rock" where they were met by Mr John Robert Godley, the Founder of the Canterbury Province and Governor Sir George Grey and Lady Grey, who had come down especially from Wellington for the occasion. The second ship the "Randolph" arrived later that day at 3.30pm, followed by the "Cressy" and the next day the "Sir George Seymour".

Although Canterbury does not officially recognise the arrival as a holiday, the date being too close to Christmas, it is important that the Canterbury Pilgrims and Early Settlers Association has the support of the locals on that day. It is hoped to have the Pilgrims' flag flying on the Museum flag pole, the presence of the Mayor, Bob Parker and possibly three local people who instigated the removal of "The Rock" which was originally below the old post office building and had to be repositioned to it's present day site. Mrs Beverly Bolland, President of the Association, will address the gathering assisted by Reverend Neil Struthers, who will give the final blessing.

Locals usually notice women on Lyttelton streets in heritage costumes and sometimes the bell of " Holy Trinity" has been rung at 10am to signify the importance of the arrival of the first ship. This year, unfortunately, that tradition will have to wait for a future time!

Lyttelton Community House

Getting to the Heart of Our Community

In Lyttelton we are fortunate to have so many active people trying to make a difference. Christine Wilson is one of them, and is currently the Manager of Lyttelton Community House and the Lyttelton Harbour Basin Youth Council. You don't see her around too much because most of the time she is in her Dublin Street office managing these two vital organisations.

Over the last three to four years Christine, her staff and volunteer boards have totally transformed the Youth Centre, and have created Lyttelton Community House from scratch. They have done an amazing job. During this difficult year just keeping both centres open has been a major achievement. And on top of that they have developed a new food programme, cooking for Lyttelton elderly five nights per week. This is only just scaling down now. "That has been a terrific locally led earthquake response and a major achievement", Christine said.

They are also the proud owners of a community bus. "That is opening up more possibilities and now our youth outreach now includes Governors Bay", Christine said. This wasn't possible in the past. Partnerships are also developing with Diamond Harbour youth. Hot off the press Christine says "We are now offering a shoppers bus every Wednesday afternoon at 1.30pm".

Christine has a lifetime of experience in our beautiful town. Born in Cressy House and apart from a couple of years in Christchurch has lived in Lyttelton all her life. She tells me snippets of her life. At age 16, "My first job was down at the wharf working in the Waterside Workers Canteen where 1,000 men a day used to eat lunch down there", she said.

Over the years she's done a variety of things but everything focuses on people. Her proudest job is being a mother and now grandmother. "I have three sons and eleven grandchildren" she tells me proudly. Many of you will know that two of Christine's sons were All Blacks and within her immediate family are four All Blacks. Talking briefly about the Rugby World Cup and rugby in her life, "This year I was just pleased to be able to watch it on television and it was all really low key" she said. "Over the years the sport has given her loads of enjoyment and the opportunities and friendships developed are really special to her.

Like most of us, learning about our past is also important to Christine. She has a special connection to the Pacific Islands. Her mother was Tahitian but spent many years living in Rarotonga. Christine has made many journeys back, and is currently doing an ancestral studies course and linking her past to Maori. "Do you know that Tamatea was a commander of one of the seven canoes that brought Maori to New Zealand" she said. That's the ancestral link she has to New Zealand. This links her well to Rapaki. In Maori whakapapa Tamatea is their local mountain.

This ancestral linkage ensures Christine is very interested in Maori issues for our harbour. At her role at Community House and working with Rodney Rutledge they started to tell the story of Parihaka. Each year Christine organises a memorial service at the Lyttelton Gaol to commemorate this. Whilst a tragic part of New Zealand's history it is great that the Community House has been able to help tell this story and link our current generation with this important New Zealand event and the significance for the peace movement worldwide.

If you'd like more information about the services for Lyttelton Community House or the Lyttelton Harbour Basin Youth Council visit Christine and the friendly team at 7 Dublin Street. Community House is open from 10am -2pm Monday to Friday and the Youth Centre is open each day from 3pm. Phone 741 1427 or email: commhouse@xnet.co.nz.

COMMUNITY GROUPS

The Lyttelton Review has been designed to help keep Harbour residents informed. It is a tool to be used for sharing information, and is widely circulated across residents, business and media contacts.

A great way to find out what has happened during the year from our community organisations is to read their Chairpersons AGM summaries.

If you would like to share your AGM reports with the wider community we'd love to hear from you and we'll publish them progressively over the next few months.

Here at the Lyttelton Review, we welcome your contributions:

This last year has been a year of immense change for all of us. Even for the very lucky shops such as ours who sustained minimal physical damage it has been a year of extraordinary challenges on several different levels. We've had many of our beloved staff move on, but have also gained some fantastic new talent. Our sales are up, but our supply chain has drastically changed. We no longer can rely on the support structure which we previously had, but we now have expanded freedom and control over how we operate. So it is due to a wide range of circumstances that Lyttel Piko is in need of restructuring.

We are currently investigating the viability of turning Lyttel Piko into a Community Owned Co-Operative. This would mean that you, the customers of Lyttel Piko would be asked to buy shares in a new Co-Operative and become its owners. This would generate much needed capital for the shop which would help to pay off previous debt and secure funding for future growth. For you, the customers, the benefits could include price breaks on selected items, bulk buying discounts, member appreciation day discounts, access to workshops and seminars, more open sharing of information, and potentially profit sharing. But more importantly – you would have a direct say in how the shop is run. All members or owners would have an equal vote on major issues and would elect a board of directors which would steer and oversee the operations of the business.

Through our initial research we have come across several successful models for Co-Operatives and need your feedback to understand what would be the best choices for us. We at Lyttel Piko want to see this shop stay in Lyttelton serving this incredible community, but we will need a lot of support to do it.

There are few ways that you can contribute right now. Firstly, fill out a survey on www.surveymonkey.com/s/XGQNQY7 [if you need the old fashioned paper version stop by the shop and that can be arranged]. This is of vital importance. It will help us understand who our customers are, how we can serve them better, and what the viability of setting up a Co-operative is.

Secondly, if you have the time, we are in dire need of some volunteer hours. Jobs like packing, cleaning and shelf stocking are things that would help out immensely. Please stop by or give us a call if you are interested. Even an hour here and there would be valuable.

Thank you again for all of your support over the last four years. We are excited about what the future holds for our Lyttel shop and for this great community. By the way, 2012 has been designated the International Year of the Co-Operative. Please keep your eyes and ears open for some even bigger plans coming out of Project Lyttelton.

Organically yours, The Lyttel Piko Team

Potential Changes to Ferry Access

Draft Lyttelton Master Plan

Diamond Harbour resident, Nancy Vance is encouraging Lyttelton Harbour residents and users of the Lyttelton Harbour Ferry to consider the implications proposed by the Christchurch City Council in the Draft Lyttelton Master Plan.

On page 25 of the Draft Lyttelton Master Plan, the Council has suggested that "the location of the Diamond Harbour Ferry is a significant issue". A submission made to the Proposed Draft Lyttelton Master Plan by Black Cat Cruises strongly supports the relocation of the ferry service to the western end of the Marina. While there is little further narrative in the Draft Lyttelton Master Plan about the relocation of the Diamond Harbour Ferry service, it is fair to suggest that if you are not comfortable with the ferry service moving from its current location, then make a submission to Council expressing your concern or preference.

It would appear there is a real risk of the ferry terminal being moved to the western inner harbour; over 1km walk from London Street. The current ferry terminal location at B Jetty provides direct pedestrian access to the shops and services of London Street to residents in the southern bays communities. B Jetty is also the location of significant historical events in Canterbury's and New Zealand's cultural history - it is no coincidence that Pilgrim's Rock, the Signal House, the Tug Lyttelton berth, the Antarctic Expeditions plaque and the Lyttelton Historical Museum are all located around the B Jetty, Norwich Quay and Oxford Street.

This one last tiny piece of "public" waterfront access is in fact good urban design from a transport and cultural history perspective. It would be a shame to lose it. Now is the time to voice any concerns you may have. If you wish to make a submission to the Draft Lyttelton Master Plan pertaining to the location of the ferry access between Lyttelton and Diamond Harbour - please do! Submissions are due Monday, 19 December 2011.

LYTTELTON HARBOUR & REGIONAL PHOTOS

Here at the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre we are working to upgrade our website; to further promote the Lyttelton Harbour region.

Do you have any photos of the following themes that you would be happy to share with the community:

- Buildings Lost
- Time Ball Station
- Railway Activity
- Torpedo Museum
- Ripana Island

Images can be given to us either as a printed image that we can scan and return to you; or

Supply us the image electronically via disk, USB stick or email us at: infocentre@lyttelton.net.nz

The Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre exists on donations. So unfortunately we can not pay a royalty for any images, but we can supply web links and any design credits to the photographer.

Any images you can help us with, would be fantastic.

Our special thanks to those who have sent images in.

Have you heard the most exciting news...! Ground is now open as a cafe at the Naval Point Club, and trading between 8.30am and 4.30pm Tuesday to Saturday.

Offering New York style hot sandwiches - you have to try the "Hanoi" - a Vietnamese-style pork belly served hot with fresh herbs and vegetables and a Vietnamese dressing in a beautiful roll. Nom nom nom.

Ground are still offering the old favourites of cold sandwiches or try the new "Sussex Ploughman's" with roast beef slices, cheddar, pickled onions, mustard and lettuce.

And not to be missed, are the famous Ground gourmet pies, exotic salads, hot soups and nachos. Plus they are happily serving their special blend coffees again.

If you are missing the Ground deli items then make sure you check out the new indoor Garden City Market in Sockburn at 55 Buchanans Road where they have set up a small deli selling cheeses, salamis, prosciutto, olives, house-smoked salmon etc. It is not a Farmer's Market; more like a Paddy's Market in Sydney. Open Saturday and Sunday 9am to 4pm.

And don't forget, you'll find the deliciously entertaining Adam under the Ground gazebo every Saturday morning at the Lyttelton Farmers Market.

Also, if you're thinking of entertaining a crowd, Flic and Jenny are up and running with catering services including:

- Morning and afternoon teas delivered to your door
- Lunches and functions - either at the Naval Point Yacht Club, or on your premises
- In home dinner parties - you can relax and entertain while Ground cook in your kitchen
- Wedding, parties - what ever the event, Ground can cater
- Private cooking classing in your home, or at the Yacht Club tailored to your needs:
  - Cooking to a budget
  - Cost effective tasty lunch box ideas
  - How to make pilays and risottos
  - Vegetarian cooking
  - Turkish, or Catalan cuisine

The Loons for Entertainment

No One Delivers Entertainment Like the Loons

It feels really good to be giving you some positive news about goings ons and going offs at The Loons. Following the amazing experience that was 'Macbeth' The Loons set about touring 'Berlin Burlesque' around the country. Currently the team are performing in Invercargill this week before they head back home.

While the Loons building is still closed - the building owners are chasing down some more funds to complete the strengthening repair work needed - and they have been lucky to secure some theatre spaces around Christchurch over the next two months to be able to bring you some of that Loons medicine you all know and love.

The Loons kick off the Summer season with 'A Night of Theatre' playing at the Old Boys' Theatre, Christ's College from Tuesday December 13th to Saturday December 17th, at 7:30pm. Enjoy an evening of three one-act plays featuring the actors from The Loons Theatre Company. Two plays written by Joe Bennett, and one by Dave Ladderman (with assistance from William Shakespeare).

Until the Loons are home again, they can't wait to see you all at the door again for the next couple of shows - Darryl and The Loons team.

Harbour Kitchens - Earthquake Edition

Christmas Gift Idea and Supports Lyttelton Schools

The new 2011 Harbour Kitchens Earthquake Edition acknowledges the events of 22nd February. Like many in Christchurch, Lyttelton lost a lot on that day, personally and collectively. With an additional sixteen pages of words and images, this latest edition pays tribute to the things we have lost - but also to the spirit that has kept us going. Available now from Portico, Leslies Bookshop and the Farmers Market.

Living Springs

Spring Update

Living Springs are celebrating the arrival of summer and longer days by running at full capacity with residential camps and day program for schools from all areas of Christchurch, Kaikoura and the West Coast. As the weather improves, so does the demand for their off-site activities like multi day tramps and kayaking trips, and the Farm Park continues to be very popular with schools, pre schools and birthday parties for groups up to 100 children and adults. The wedding season is also now in full swing, with two beautiful weddings already held this year making use of the scenic harbour vista as an amazing backdrop.

Living Springs have also been lucky to receive funding for several projects and wish to take this opportunity to thank Transpower Community Trust for funding the 634 metre fence to start the project to restore the native bush in a 35 hectare block. They would also like to thank Christchurch City Council for funding new BalanzBikes, a great new activity; and to the Lion Foundation for supporting the ongoing energy efficiency project; and to Skills Active for sponsoring the outdoor first aid qualifications for our team.

What is new at Living Springs:

- Living Springs have been working with a fully qualified swim instructor, Buffy Gilmore (Just Buffs swim school) to offer swimming lessons in our indoor pool for pre-school and school age children, from Term One. Details will be advertised soon.
- Keep your children safe around the water this summer and send them on a water safety course. We are running fun but informative 45 minute water safety courses for ages 5yrs and above on the mornings of Friday 16th December and Tuesday 24th January. Details will be on the Living Springs web site and advertised through the local schools, or call Living Springs 03 329 9788 for more information.
- Living Springs are also now able to provide offsite catering for functions and events and recently supplied a wonderful feast for Diamond Harbour Volunteer Fire brigade.
- Don't miss booking in for the Summer kids camp, January 8th-13th. To get more info about that phone 03 329 9788.

Happy Holiday Season to everyone from everyone of us at Living Springs!

TimeBank Twilight Celebration

Everyone Invited, Everything Free

The weather forecast is sunny and still - yay! The Timebank Team have a great program lined up, including live music, free yoga session, lots of kids activities, free food, all sorts of skill and information sharing.

There is still a spot for you if you want to share a skill, let us know soon, or even just turn up on the afternoon and set up camp!

In any case, bring along things to swap - give your house a good spring-clean and bring down your unwanted but still fabulous housewares, tools, art materials, Christmas decorations, clothes, books, toys and any garden produce you have – veggies, seeds, seedlings, bunches of flowers, preserves -whatever you can think of!

And while there will be some free food, instead of cooking and eating dinner at home - bring some to the grassy to share, then there will be enough for a dinner for the multitudes! Most important of all, bring yourself, your friends and children.

Also, for those of you who want to bring dogs, can someone maybe share their skills as an animal lover and provide a dog area with bowls of water, a pat and a friendly word?

Other events include:

- TEA-and TALK
- Shared Food and BBQ
- Wool Craft
- Knitting
- Tussi-mussi Making
- Brain-Buzz: Knowledge about Books- Money
- Draft Lyttelton Master Plan explained
- Co-Operatives in Practice
- Toddler-area with toys and paddle pool
