The Loons Road to Recovery

Update: Lyttelton Working Mens Club

While it is disheartening to see the collection of vacant sites around Lyttelton, there is an optimistic spirit emerging that knows the tide is turning. Rising from the rubble, the last remaining heritage buildings are slowly but surely undergoing repairs to make a strong comeback. From the outside it is difficult to appreciate the progress being made, but this week the Lyttelton Harbour Review team had the privilege of visiting The Loons building on Canterbury Street, and this coming weekend you too can view the progress being made at the Lyttelton Workings Mens Club:

The Loons Open Day: Saturday 15 June, 1.00pm

All welcome to come and view the progress being made on the building.
Meet at 1.00pm behind the Lyttelton Library on Canterbury Street to be taken through.

Originally built in 1909, the club originated after the second world war and the building was given by the Watersiders Social Club to the Lyttelton Working Mens Club during the 1951 waterfront lockout, when the assets of the union were being seized by the government. The Lyttelton Workings Mens Club has looked after the building ever since. The Loons name came about in the 1930's when the building was Loons Garage but the origin of the name was lost until recently when it was rediscovered in an old photo. It is remarkable that having been built more than 100 years ago, the building is still standing strong after all the seismic activity, and to state that the Lyttelton Working Mens Club are “undertaking repairs” to the old building, is somewhat of an understatement.

In all respects the restoration and renovation project for the building would have daunted even the most experienced of project managers. Yet here we see a collective of dedicated Lyttelton Working Mens Club members literally rolling up their sleeves and getting stuck into working through the restoration process. It is nothing short of remarkable. And what is it that keeps this team of dedicated volunteers and club members going - the satisfaction of knowing a significant piece of Lyttelton's history will be saved, and that Lyttelton residents will again have the enjoyment of a first class hall, gathering space, garden bar, entertainment venue and so much more. Here is a project that will return a community facility for every ones benefit.

But with large projects, come even larger budgets. The Lyttelton Working Mens Club are grateful to have received generous grants from the Mayoral Fund; the Christchurch Earthquake Appeal Trust; the Canterbury Community Trust; the Todd Foundation; the Council Heritage Incentive Fund; the donations of building materials; the discounts offered on supplies; and the donations from members of the community. In addition, the Lyttelton Working Mens Club would like to acknowledge the contributions from Lyttelton Builders Limited, Orbit Architecture, Structex Structural Engineers and Lyttelton Engineering for getting behind this project and supporting the clubs vision thus far.

Insurance funds have been sufficient to cover the cost of earthquake repairs, but do not cover the cost of earthquake strengthening, building improvements nor meeting new building code regulations. For this reason continued funding is needed to complete this most ambitious project. As part of the restoration project, the Lyttelton Working Mens Club is sensibly taking the opportunity to upgrade the building to make it more comfortable and in line with modern standards and expectations from such a facility. Improvements will include the installation of sky lights throughout the centre of the building, thirteen in total at a cost of $2,000 each. It is easy to see how something that seems so simple and necessary, can generate an expense exceeding $26,000. Even with significant volunteer labour, the bills keep coming. The total project cost is expected to be around $1.3 million with the club contributing $480,000 of insurance, and with $470,000 being received in grants and pledges, there is still a significant short fall to complete the project. Work to date has progressed as funds have allowed, and it would be fantastic for The Loons to open again without having to mortgage the premises.

At this point in time almost all of the earthquake strengthening has been completed. This is evident throughout the building with the significant amount of new steel framing in place, the steel encased diaphragm system for greater earthquake residence and general strengthening to the building through double joists and trusses, new footings and engineered retaining solutions. Today the building is a skeleton of its former self, but it is at least safe and strong.

The light at the end of the tunnel that drives the Lyttelton Working Mens Club is the ability to create a truly accessible Community Centre that meets all the theatre, music and performing arts needs for the greater harbour basin community. When open "The Loons" will once again be a positive draw card for the Lyttelton township, bringing people back here again and again, providing work opportunities for local young people, and drama and arts training for the schools as well as a music and theatre venue. As part of the Lyttelton Master Plan, Lyttelton residents identified the need for such a space, and now is the hour to pull together and support this significant rebuild project.

While no date has been set to reopen, on Saturday 15 June the doors will be open for everyone to have an opportunity to look through the building and see firsthand what great work has been done, and to visualise the dream destined for this building. Meet behind the Lyttelton Library on Canterbury Street to be taken through in groups. The Lyttelton Working Mens Club AGM will follow.

If you would like to be more involved in this project or join the Lyttelton Working Mens Club [which is open to any individual, not just men these days] the annual membership is $30 and is a great way to help keep this project moving along.

Further funds are being sought for specific items, and if you are in a position to help please contact the Lyttelton Working Mens Club project manager: Neville Walker 021 024 63015 or donations can be posted directly to The Lyttelton Working Mens Club Project, PO Box 103, Lyttelton 8841. Any amount will be gratefully received.

Little Church with a Story

Saint Saviours at Trinity

Neil Struthers reminds us of a church in the far north of Norway in a tiny town called Honningsvåg. A tiny church that survived the slash and burn retreat when the German Army destroyed the north of Norway as they retreated from Russian soldiers in 1945. This amazing church survived against the odds. It's a church with a tale of hope, unity and community. Fast forward Lyttelton 2013 and it's official: Neil Struthers comes to tell the Review Team that Saint Saviours Anglican Church is returning to Lyttelton and we will be the proud owners of this little church with its own amazing story.

A brief summary of the history reveals the church was built in West Lyttelton in 1883, consecrated in 1887, closed in 1974 and then gifted to Cathedral Grammar. This small wooden church was cut into eight pieces and transported to the school via Evans Pass and reopened in January 1976. The earthquakes of 2011 saw Cathedral Grammar reassess its building needs. This little church was now surplus to requirements and in 2012 the Grammar school gifted the church back to Holy Trinity Lyttelton. Well it's now official the church really is coming back. Neil proudly announces the new church will be known as Saint Saviours at Trinity. It's about to start its long journey back to Lyttelton via Gebbies Pass. This time it will be cut into ten pieces for the journey and relocated on the former Holy Trinity site.

This is all part of the first phase of the church development project. Neil says "with insurance funds and EQC payouts the dioceses has enough money to bring the church back, fix the retaining wall on the south boundary, deconstruct the lean two on the vicarage build the foundations and get the church to lock up stage. This is all part of a $2.385million redevelopment project" he said. Phase one will cost $1.2 million and expected to be completed by the end of September. Phase two and three are going to be heavily dependant on funding. A further $1.285 million is needed to see the project through to completion. Some other funding sources are already being pursued by the church but this is a call for our community to literally dig into its pockets to make this church a reality.

Neil explains the details of the remaining work. "Phase two is all about repairing and reinstating the interior of the building plus reinstating the vicarage. It will include repairing the existing St Saviours windows and installing the Lyttelton rose panel with the three lancets from Holy Trinity plus ensuring the vicarage has facilities like toilets, kitchen, meeting rooms etc." This is all about getting the site people ready. The final stage of the project will focus on restoring the original organ of Holy Trinity plus building a belfry in the grounds. Neil says" I think the belfry could be a lovely memorial for someone". Neil also has all sorts of interesting facts and figures. 99% of the weddings at Holy Trinity were for Lyttelton residents. Whilst many were not church attendees they were related to people associated with the church. Similarly with funerals, 87% were performed for Lyttelton residents who did not attend the church regularly. Then there were the many community events that the church gladly welcomed the community for. These included the Rose Show, School Art Auctions, and festival events.

Saint Saviours at Trinity will need all our support both financial and in kind to make our community church a reality. Lyttelton's new Anglican community church certainly has some story to tell Contact Neil Struthers 328 8487 if you want to support this project financially or would like more information.

about the lyttelton harbour review

Lyttelton Harbour Review is a community newsletter initiative developed by local Professionals real estate agent Lynnette Baird and Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre chairperson Wendy Everingham. The objective of the Lyttelton Harbour Review is to help keep local residents informed with what is going on in the wider Lyttelton Harbour community. Each week readers can read about community groups; businesses; events; and everything in between. If you have an event, topic, cause, or other, that you would like to share with the harbour community, then we would love to hear from you. Be heard, be seen, be informed - read it or offer it here.

Celebrating Matariki

Festival of Lights

For the first time this year, Lyttelton Harbour Festival of Lights joins with Lyttelton Community House and Rapaki Marae to celebrate Matariki. What is Matariki? In short, Matariki is the Māori New Year.

Matariki is the Māori name for the group of stars also known as the Pleiades star cluster or the Seven Sisters and what is referred to as the traditional Māori New Year. The rise of Matariki signals the end of one year in Aotearoa and the beginning of the next. Matariki is celebrated with activities related to kinship, unity, gatherings, harvesting and planting, paying tribute to ancestors and looking ahead to the future.

Matariki is widely observed and celebrated by peoples of the world. Over centuries the Pleiades have been celebrated by the Greeks, Japanese, Chinese, Vikings, Africans, American Indians, Australian aborigines and throughout the Pacific.

Ripeka Paraone from Rāpaki and Wendy McKay from Cass Bay, were invited by Christine Wilson to get involved in the first Matariki celebration hosted by the Lyttelton Community Centre in 2009. Four years on, awareness has increased within the Lyttelton Community about Matariki, with hundreds of children and Banks Peninsula communities getting involved in the annual Matariki celebrations held in both Lyttelton and Rāpaki.

This Matariki we celebrate joining with Project Lyttelton's Festival of Lights thus providing the opportunity for Lyttelton to be the first township to celebrate Matariki as a community.

This event would not be possible without the generous support of many local businesses. This year thanks needs to be made to: Christchurch City Council, Lyttelton Port of Christchurch, Hang-Up Entertainment, Lyttelton Engineering, Fireworks Professionals, The Canterbury Community Trust, Lion Foundation, Harris and Turner.

Designs Released for Lyttelton's Civic Square

Two Options for Community to Comment On

Two draft design concepts have been developed for Lyttelton's town or civic square at the corner of London and Canterbury Streets. And the Christchurch City Council wants your feedback on the concept you prefer before preparing and recommending a single concept plan to the Lyttelton Mt Herbert Community Board for its approval. The full design detail and feedback form can be found toward the end of this edition of the Lyttelton Harbour Review.

The concepts are the outcome of two years of community consultation, firstly during the Lyttelton Master Plan process, then more recently during this civic square project. The community was asked about the function, look and feel of the space during two drop-in sessions and a survey in March 2013, and a community meeting in April. Early concept designs were peer reviewed by a group of local design professionals in May.

Council landscape architects have focused on designing flexible, uncluttered spaces which provide the framework for a range of temporary and permanent features and activities. The project team is currently working with individuals and organisations to identify possible elements that reflect Lyttelton's special character and history. An updated proposal will be sent to submitters before the recommended plan is considered by the Community Board.

This consultation phase also seeks community views on:

- What this space should be named.
- Should any of the transitional arts projects, now on the site, be retained and incorporated in the final design concept.

Local residents, business owners and interested people are welcome to discuss the draft design concepts proposed for Lyttelton's civic square with Council staff at:

- the Lyttelton Farmers Market on Saturday, 15 June 2013, from 10.00am to 1.00pm; and
- the Civic Square site, corner of London and Canterbury Streets, on Tuesday 18 June 2013, from 3.00pm to 6.00pm.

The Council's project team needs to receive your responses before 5pm on Monday, 1 July 2013. You can comment by returning the freepost form; visiting the Christchurch City Council's 'Have Your Say' website: www.ccc.govt.nz/haveyoursay or by contacting the Consultation Leader: Jennie Hamilton, Christchurch City Council, phone 941 5207 or email: Jennie.Hamilton@ccc.govt.nz

Cunningham Terrace Retaining Wall Complete

SCIRT have completed the retaining wall on Cunningham Terrace, and would like to thank Lyttelton residents for the support shown while they have been replacing the earthquake damaged wall. Due to the ground being too damp SCIRT were unable to lay the final road surface at this time, but expect the final surface will be put down in spring. In the meantime they will lay a gravel running course. There is also further work to follow on with planting and restoration where they have accessed private property. SCIRT would also like to thank the Lyttelton community in advance for the continued patience and understanding while essential repair work is still underway in the Lyttelton area.

Earthquake Repair Update for Council Facilities

Recreation Centre and Norman Kirk Memorial Pool

On Wednesday 5 June the Lyttelton Mt Herbert Community Board hosted a community briefing at the Lyttelton Main School Hall on the Lyttelton Recreation Centre and the Norman Kirk Memorial Pool. Council Staff informed those who attended of the following details.

Lyttelton Recreation Centre

Trinity Hall currently meets 11% of the National Building Standard [NBS] while the Lyttelton Recreation Centre is currently 15% of the National Building Standard. The threshold that the Christchurch City Council has set for closure of facilities is 34%, therefore this facility as a whole falls beneath the threshold of what is acceptable and safe for the public. Christchurch City Council policy is that buildings must be repaired to 67% of National Building Standard before reopening for public use.

There is a moderate level of earthquake damage to the building, and the advice received from structural engineers is that this facility is repairable:

Cost to Repair to 34% National Building Standard	$2,315,000
Cost to Repair to 67% National Building Standard	$2,541,500	Council minimum repair standard
Cost to Demolish and Rebuild	$4,500,000	Estimate only

Norman Kirk Memorial Pool

Men's and Ladies changing room meet 18% of the National Building Standard. The Plant Room meets 39% of the National Building Standard. Significant levels of earthquake damage is evident in both buildings and the site has suffered significant land damage. Level survey shows significant bulging of the retaining walls. The pool tank is cracked / ruptured, and this indicates that the pool tank needs replacing.

The buildings are deemed uneconomic to repair, and there is a shortfall between the repair cost and the insured amount of approximately $1.04 million:

Cost to Repair to 67% National Building Standard	$2,000,000
Cost to Demolish and Rebuild	$2,400,000

Next Step

Community involvement is required to workshop and prioritise the options. Group discussions are scheduled for Wednesday 19 June 2013 at 7.30pm, with the venue to be confirmed. Everyone is welcome to brainstorm and suggest options.

Facilities Rebuild Plan Programme Community Forums

Christchurch City Council's Facilities Rebuild Project team will hold a series of community forums during June and July to help inform residents about progress with the repair and rebuild of Council facilities across the city and Banks Peninsula. Residents are invited to attend the forums, which will include a 20 to 25 minute presentation, followed by a 50-minute open question and answer session.

As well as an opportunity for residents to clarify progress on local facilities, the forums will also help the Facilities Rebuild team to identify the best ways of keeping residents up-to-date with developments in the programme. Depending on feedback received from the first forums, the format of future sessions may be adapted. It is anticipated these forums will be held quarterly.

The venues and times for the forums are:

Wednesday	19 June	6.00pm to 7.30pm	Woolston Club, 43 Hargood Street East, Woolston
Wednesday	10 July	6.00pm to 7.15pm	Lyttelton [Top] Club, 23 Dublin Street, Lyttelton

We recognise the importance of engaging with our community and that there is a high level of interest in what is happening with Council-owned facilities.

pass it on, spread the word

Not everyone receives these news letters, so please pass them onto anyone you think would be interested. We can also arrange printed copies for interested parties - just let us know. A big thank you to everyone who emails us with what is happening in their part of Lyttelton Harbour paradise. If you have news, or belong to a community group, own a business - get in contact with us, we would love to promote or share your story with the Lyttelton Harbour district. Errors, Omissions and Typos are all part and parcel of a volunteer service. These quirky additions are offered free for your amusement. But, if we have "got it wrong" - please just let us know.

Retaining Wall Heritage

Christchurch City Council's heritage advisors and urban designers have identified significant [prominent pre-1900] walls in east, central, and west Lyttelton, including Sumner Road. Advice on the significance of these walls has also been sought from the New Zealand Historic Places Trust, and there is a requirement under the Archaeological Authority granted by the Historic Places Trust to restore the walls.

The Christchurch City Council, in junction with the Stronger Christchurch Infrastructure Response Team [SCIRT], are currently working through a programme of deconstruction, stabilisation and repair of Lyttelton's Council owned heritage retaining walls. It is important to note not all red rock retaining walls are considered to be significant - only those that are pre 1900 or as agreed with New Zealand Historic Places Trust.

Significant walls will be refaced with the salvaged red rock over several years as Council funding becomes available. The SCIRT programme is to deconstruct the damaged wall and salvage the stone facing [red rock] and then construct the new wall [this is the concrete wall that people can see now]. The Christchurch City Council's Heritage Team have contracted Stone Works to reface a small portion of the Sumner Road retaining wall with red rock. The purpose of this is to provide an example to the community of how the future facing works could look and what can be achieved.

Prior to deconstruction, walls are carefully photographed by archaeologists. This is to enable as much of the original material as possible to be put back in its original position. The Council has pre and post-earthquake photographs of Lyttelton walls which shows their original and damaged form. For any area of a wall that requires new stone, these will be refaced in the walls original style, for example aztec, block or random style. These new areas will take several years to age and weather.

Local Musicians Dominate Awards

Lyttelton musicians Delaney Davidson and Marlon Williams dominated the New Zealand Country Music Awards in Gore recently. A double win was notched up by favourites Delaney Davidson and Marlon Williams at the award ceremony held as part of the Gold Guitar festival.

Their album Sad But True - The Secret History of Country Music Songwriting Vol. 1, recorded by Ben Edwards of Lyttelton Records, won a Tui for Best Country Album and their single Bloodletter was awarded the APRA Best Country Song 2013. Their "take on a classic American art form" was hailed for being "brilliantly executed" and "a real joy to listen to".

Davidson said the pair had put a lot of work into the album and it was fantastic that people responded to that. Speaking ahead of the ceremony, he said he had been determined to go this year. "I was away last year so this time I'm able to drive down to Gore and attend the ceremony. It's really exciting. I heard some stories about last time and was sorry to have missed the event."

He said the new faces in country music "have gone from the window and are now sitting inside at the table - Marlon Williams, The Eastern, me, we are all Christchurch locals and all finalists in the Country Music Awards". Davidson said country music in New Zealand was becoming increasingly relevant, and had a winning combination of synthesis, high quality, DIY, and inventiveness. Despite this it did not get a lot of media attention. "The only way I knew who [the finalists] were is because I was one."

Delaney Davidson and Marlon Williams played their last show with their band at the Wunderbar on Sunday 2 June. Williams moves to Melbourne in July.

plenty to share

In Lyttelton so many residents grow vegetables; or have fruit trees literally dripping with produce. Plenty to Share is about sharing any excess produce with the community. So if your lemon tree is yellow with goodness and you can't keep up with making lemon curd, bring those surplus fruits down to the organisers, where every Saturday the swapping of produce is well underway in Lyttelton on the corner of London and Canterbury Street; and also in Diamond Harbour on a Saturday morning at the village centre. If there is something on the Plenty to Share table that you would like to take home, then you are warmly invited to do so.

Police Car Torched in Lyttelton

One police car has been written off and another has been damaged in an arson overnight on the 27 May 2013 at the Lyttelton police station. Sergeant Gary Manch, of Lyttelton, said the Fire Service was called to the station in Sumner Rd at 2.10am on Tuesday after a neighbour reported hearing an explosion and seeing flames.

Manch said the fire was brought under control "relatively quickly" but not before two marked police cars were damaged. "One car was fully alight and is a complete write-off, while a second car that was parked beside it has suffered heat damage to its exterior," he said. "There's also a small amount of damage to an exterior wall of the station."

Manch said a woman was found close to the scene shortly after the incident and has been spoken to by investigators. No arrests have been made, and inquiries are continuing.

Two rubbish-bin fires were found in London Street that appeared to have been lit shortly before the police station fire. "Fortunately, we can still use the station" Manch said. "We're fortunate that the damage wasn't more severe, but it's still a blow. We lost the old police station after the earthquake and were just getting back on our feet in our temporary building. If it hadn't been for the volunteer fire brigade, we would have lost our station. They're bloody good buggers."

Manch said police would like to hear from anyone who saw the fire or any suspicious activity in the area. Anyone with information is asked to call the Christchurch police on 03 363 7400.

looking for reading material

A book swap has been operating from the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre for some time. Thank you to all the lovely residents who keep dropping books in. This service is available to all local residents, simply just pop in, choose a book, and then return it or another when you are finished. Borrow or swap - it's your call. If you are looking for reading material on economics, the transition movement, sustainability, alternative currencies and community development then check out the LIFT Library that has recently started. Contact Juliet Adams on 328 8139 for more information.

Human Muse

Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre: Art Exhibition

Like most people in the last two earthquake years Kerry's creative drive has been about working out the shock of his experiences and finding away to release these. This has mainly been through community work and projects that connect people to each other. Art or creativity was also part of this process for Kerry, and in the quiet times something found its way through. Enjoy.

God Save the Queen

Returns to London Street

Welcome back "God Save the Queen". Open Wednesday to Saturday 10.00am to 4.00pm and Sunday 11.00am to 2.00pm at 33 London Street, Lyttelton. Phone 03 328 9430.

lyttelton market town

Saturday mornings are never dull in Lyttelton! Enjoy the local markets including the Lyttelton Farmers Market for fresh produce, meat, fish, eggs, honey and yummy baked goods. Check out the new Lyttelton Arts Market on the corner of London and Sumner Road. Head up to the Grassy Art and Craft Market for bargain items or unique art items. And be sure to check out the Community Fundraising Garage Sale located up the driveway behind the swimming pool. Its all here, so where else would you want to be!

Too Busy To Cook?

Remember those delicious gourmet meals available from Choice last Winter outside Himalaya Design, well great news. With the opening of Harris & Turner, Ground are now able to provide take home dinners seven days a week from there. In effect Choice take home dinners have combined with Ground to produce a range of dinners each week that reflect the types of meals that James used to sell on London Street and that Jenny and Flic used to sell in the Ground Deli pre-quake. Everything from slow-cooked lamb shanks with olives on champ, to sausages and mash or roast beef and Yorkshire pudding, or Mexican chickpea and corn casserole on green jalapeno rice. Something to suit all tastes. Check out the selection at Harris & Turner, 8 London Street, Lyttelton - open until 6.00pm, ideal for those heading home from work.

Call for Volunteers

Bujinkan Classes

Wednesdays 7.00pm to 8.30pm | Lyttelton Union Parish Church, Winchester Street

The Bujinkan is a collection of nine different schools [including samurai and ninjutsu schools] which use a variety of skills, ideas and weapons to protect yourself and the people around you. Classes are taught in a safe, relaxed, friendly manner by a licensed Bujinkan instructor who has trained in several countries and travels to Japan to advance his own training. It's through these connections that the instructor is able to pass on the art as it's taught today. The best way to understand is to train, so grab a friend and turn up. Classes are open to both men and women aged 18 upwards. No previous martial arts experience is necessary, practitioners of other arts are also welcome. You don't need to be fit or in your twenties to start. Bujinkan martial arts are unusual in that they can adapt to the practitioner rather than the other way round. For more information about training times, location and cost visit www.bujinkanweatheralldojo.com or ring Shaun on 027 231 6881.

c'mon get involved

Lyttelton is known for its culture of volunteer activity and community participation. If you have ever had the thought that you would like to be more involved in the local community, but you are not sure where to go, or who to talk to? Start by having a conversation with the team at the Lyttelton Harbour Information Centre, as they can give you some advice on the many types of great volunteer organisations here in Lyttelton. If you are passionate about elderly care, sustainability, youth culture, harbour activities, heritage, radio, business development, fundraising, or just about anything - then there is a group who would love for you to be involved!

WSET Level 2

October/November 2013

I will be running the WSET's Level 2 course in October/November. It's suitable for both trade and consumers and will provide students with the ability to interpret the labels of the most important wines and spirits of the world, focusing on the key grape varieties and regions of the world. It also further develops wine tasting and evaluation skills through tasting some more great wines from New Zealand and beyond. No prior qualifications or knowledge required.

This will likely be taught over three full day sessions, with the provisional dates of 19th & 26th October and 2nd November. The course costs $825 inc GST, which includes WSET course study materials, tuition, wines and the exam fee. There's still some flexibility with the dates and format, so if you're interested please contact me at jo@joburzynska.com and I'll endeavour to finalise something that works for the greatest number of people.

Further information on exactly what the course covers can be found in the course specification, which can be downloaded on this page: www.wsetglobal.com/qualifications/22.asp

Cheers! Jo Burzynska MA AIWS

EQC: Help us Reach the Most in Need

Media Release | 30 May 2013

Help us to help the most vulnerable Cantabrians this winter. EQC is committed to prioritising the home repairs of our most vulnerable customers first. This winter we want your help to identify vulnerable people most in need of support.

Call EQC on 0800 DAMAGE (0800 32 62 43) if you're waiting on repairs and you or someone in your home is:

- dependent on a carer,
- or over 80 years of age with serious health condition/s and the earthquake damage is aggravating your health.

It is important to remember that EQC's prioritisation process also takes into consideration the degree of damage to the home, the area where you live and the type of dwelling you have. For example, some of our most vulnerable customers may reside in a multi-unit dwelling (two or more home connected by a shared wall, foundation, garage or roof) or their repairs may be complicated (for instance, site-specific foundation designs), and this will affect when their repairs are carried out.

We are contacting our customers who have identified as most vulnerable to talk about beginning their repairs over the next three months. For those identified as our most vulnerable customers we will provide a dedicated team of case managers who will provide continuity of service with a designated staff member as a single point of contact providing regular and consistent updates.

EQC's Community Contact Team located in Christchurch also provides case management and face to face appointments for our most vulnerable customers at various locations throughout Christchurch. This team provides a service where they will visit the customer at home if getting to an appointment is difficult for the customer.

These services can be accessed through calling EQC on 0800 Damage, for face to face appointments or home visits ask to speak to the Community Contact Team.

Make Sure You are Well Prepared for Winter Conditions

Christchurch people are well versed at ensuring their emergency supplies are fully stocked, but with inclement weather forecast, now is a good time to check winter supplies. The Canterbury Civil Defence Emergency Management Group would like to remind people to stock up on essential items, just in case we have any power outages or travel interruptions as a result of bad weather as we move in to winter.

In previous years heavy snowfall has led to road closures and power outages affecting large parts of Canterbury. A heavy snow fall in June last year cut power to thousands of homes, left many roads impassable, and disrupted flight services. "People need to be prepared now for the possibility that this winter could again bring hazardous weather conditions to Canterbury," said Neville Reilly, Regional Civil Defence Group Controller.

"For general readiness, every household should create and practise a Household Emergency Plan, and assemble and maintain emergency survival items. Everyone should have the necessities in place to be able to be self-sufficient for three days or more in the event of road closures and power cuts. This includes having stocks of food, water, warm clothing, fuel, alternative lighting and other emergency supplies on hand. We would also encourage people to make sure their homes are properly insulated. Installing heat tape on exterior pipes can help prevent water systems from freezing," he said.

Neville Reilly said checking supplies in your car is another good thing to do and advised people who use power managers to make sure they are topped up as we come in to the heart of winter. He added there are a number of places people can find information on weather conditions and warnings including www.metservice.com and www.cdemcanterbury.govt.nz.

Motorists considering driving over mountain passes in winter are advised to take chains with them in case of snow and to check road conditions and the weather forecast before setting out. Even in small quantities, snow can be hazardous. It only takes a few centimetres on a road to make driving dangerous.

Specific Emergency Preparedness Items:

Torch with spare batteries or a self-charging torch; Radio with spare batteries; First aid kit and essential medicines; Blankets or sleeping bags; Pet supplies; Wind and waterproof clothing and strong outdoor shoes.

Food and water for at least three days

Non-perishable food (canned or dried food); Food, formula and drinks for babies and small children; Water for drinking. At least three litres per person, per day; A camp-cooker or gas barbeque to cook on; A spare, full gas cylinder; A can opener; Water for washing and cooking.

Suggested Winter Preparedness Items for Your Car:

Windshield scraper and brush; Battery or self-charging torch; Battery or self-charging radio; Extra batteries; Water; Snack food; First aid kit; Jumper cables; Hi-vis vest; Tow chain or rope; Cigarette lighter cell phone charger; Wind and waterproof clothing and strong outdoor shoes; Personal medications; Blanket(s); A shovel.

Environment Canterbury's Approach to Air Quality this Winter

This winter Environment Canterbury will be asking the community to help take responsibility for improving Christchurch winter air quality. As well as encouraging people to change to cleaner forms of heating and to replace their burners once they are 15 years old, the focus will be on getting people with solid fuel burners to use them more efficiently so they are not adding pollution to winter air.

Environment Canterbury Director for Air Katherine Trought says "Many of the calls to the Pollution Hotline are about woodburners which are compliant as well as those which are non-compliant. So getting people to use their burner more efficiently and to help them think about what they are burning will improve the amount of PM10 coming from their chimney.

port view restaurant

Open Wednesday to Sunday 5.00pm until late.

Environment Canterbury's Approach to Air Quality this Winter

"We know that many people whose chimney smokes a lot are not actually aware that this is happening. We are asking everyone with a burner to go outside, check out their chimney and to take steps if it is smoking too much. It can be that simple." Ms Trought says if people burn only dry, seasoned wood and don't burn rubbish or treated wood in their burner, there is much less chance of their chimney being excessively smoky. So far this year, Christchurch has had seven nights when levels of PM10 have exceeded the National Environmental Standards which are set by the Government and which reflect World Health Organisation guides for levels of PM10.

"We need a number of approaches to improving winter air quality if we are to reach the health-based target of three exceedances by 2016 and one exceedance by 2020," says Ms Trought. "Smoke from home heating causes the majority of winter pollution in Canterbury urban areas so all chimneys make a difference – if everyone takes responsibility for what comes out of theirs, we go some way to addressing the problem."

If people see an excessively smoky chimney they can call the 24-hour Smoky Chimney Line on 08000 329 276. All calls are confidential. "We know people are keen to help when they see a really smoky chimney, but often don't know how to let their neighbour know there is an issue," says Ms Trought. "We have made it easy for them as they can go to the website letscleartheair.co.nz where they find a printable flyer which they can drop in their neighbour's letterbox. This lets the homeowner know their chimney is smoking too much and gives them five easy tips for dealing with the problem."

Teams of observers will be out in the evening in Christchurch from mid-June through the coldest part of winter looking for chimneys which are smoking too much. Environment Canterbury staff will try to get to all these homeowners and talk them through ways they can reduce their polluting emissions. They will also follow-up to ensure the problem is being addressed.

"Cleaning up the air is a community effort," says Ms Trought. "We can all play a part by reducing the amount of smoke from our own chimneys and by helping our neighbours become aware there may be an issue."

Television Take Back

Although the South Island went digital at the end of April, there's still time for people to take advantage of the TV TakeBack recycling programme and the Going Digital Targeted Assistance Package. The TV TakeBack programme [operated by the Ministry for the Environment] means that, for a limited time, South Islanders can recycle their old TVs at a cost of no more than $5. The programme has been successful with more than 50,000 sets collected across the South Island to date. However, the success means that the South Island's share of the subsidy is expected to be used up soon – after which the charge is likely to increase to cover the full cost of recycling. Residents are encouraged to act now and recycle their old televisions at the rate of no more than $5 before the subsidies are used up.

It is also not too late for people to take up the Going Digital Targeted Assistance Package, which is designed to help those groups most likely to face the greatest technical and financial difficulties in going digital. The Package remains open in the South Island until 30 July, but if there are people out there who meet the criteria and are currently without a television, they should phone the Going Digital team on 0800 838 800.

The Going Digital Targeted Assistance Package is available to people who have not already got Freeview, SKY or IGLOO, and who are: 75 and over with a Community Services Card; receiving a Veteran's Pension; receiving an Invalid's Benefit; or former recipients of the Veteran's Pension or Invalid's Benefit who moved to New Zealand Superannuation at Age 65 or over. People taking up the Package will receive a Freeview set-top box, installation, training and technical support; but those who have already gone digital do not qualify for the Package.

For further information about television recycling, visit www.tvtakeback.govt.nz to find out where your nearest drop-off point is.

For further information about the Going Digital Targeted Assistance Package, visit www.goingdigital.co.nz or phone 0800 838 800.

Completion Notice: Cunningham Terrace, Lyttelton, retaining wall repairs

We have completed the retaining wall on Cunningham Terrace. We would like to thank you for the support you have shown while we have been replacing the earthquake damaged wall. Due to the ground being too damp we are unable to lay the final road surface at this time. The final surface will be put down in spring, in the meantime will lay a gravel running course. There is also further work to follow on planting and restoration where we have accessed private property. Thank you for your continued patience and understanding while essential repair work is still underway in the Lyttelton area.

Works Notice update– London Street, Lyttelton, retaining wall repair.

What	Repair portion of retaining wall.
Where	London Street between Dublin Street and Hawkhurst Road.
When	In the week beginning Monday 3 June until mid July 2013.

Where we are working

Map 1: Location of work

Sourced from LINZ data, Crown Copyright reserved

What we are doing

- As you will be aware, we have almost completed work on the retaining wall along London Street outside 17 and 17A Dublin Street.
- We apologise for unintentionally misinforming you about the work being carried out on the retaining wall. The original work notice map indicated that the entire length of the retaining wall was to be reconstructed. The remaining portion of the retaining wall is not part of earthquake related damaged infrastructure. This portion of the retaining wall will be structurally repaired with typical maintenance measures.
- We expect the repair work to be completed by mid July 2013.
- Our usual hours of work are 7:00am to 6:00pm Monday to Friday with some weekend work if required.
- All work is subject to favourable weather and on site conditions.

How will the work be done?

- The repair work on the timber braced, red rock section of the retaining wall will involve injecting cement into the visible cracks.
- Monitoring of the retaining wall for movement will be done continuously by our surveyors.
- The timber bracing will be re-set back from the retaining wall then eventually removed.

Traffic impacts

- During the repair work part of the northern lane and shoulder along London Street will be closed. Two-way traffic will be maintained.
- On-street parking will not be available in the immediate area of work along London Street.
- At times, footpath access will be disrupted. One side of the street will always be open for pedestrian use
- Please be on the lookout for changed traffic conditions and drive to the conditions.
- Please contact Fletcher Infrastructure on 0800 444 919 if you have any specific access requirements that we need to consider eg nurse/doctor visits, Meals on Wheels or other planned works on your property.

General information

- The work may result in dust, if there are dry weather conditions. The work may also result in noise and vibrations. We will endeavour to keep any disruption to a minimum.
- The work will have no planned impact on power, wastewater, telecommunications, water or gas services.
- During the period of construction, we ask that you observe special cordons around construction areas for you and your family's safety.
- We apologise for any inconvenience and appreciate your patience while we do this work.

Safety is our number one priority. Safety is your responsibility too. Stay clear and stay alert - keep children and pets at a safe distance. Keep your vehicle safe by locking it and removing any valuable items.

Need more information?

If you have any questions, or for any other information about this work, please contact Fletcher Infrastructure on 0800 444 919 from 8:30am to 5:00pm Monday to Friday and we will be happy to help you. You can also contact us by email at CIRinfo@fcc.co.nz.

If you are not the owner of this property, please pass this notice onto your landlord or property manager.
